The West African Methodist Collegiate School, 1911-2021 Christopher E. S. Warburton, 2021-12-22 The West African Methodist Collegiate School 1911 2021 presents an intricate analysis of challenging missionary work in Sierra Leone and West Africa In meticulous detail the book revisits an era that spans the slave trade and the manumission of slaves and examines the ways that missionaries helped to educate former slaves and free men for a viable form of existence The checkered history of the school chronicles the adversities courage and determination of men who dared to preserve an educational institution that was designed to provide religious and secular education In more elaborate terms the book reveals how changing circumstances and conditions of the twenty first century can obscure a nineteenth century concept when socioeconomic challenges and the vicissitudes of war and epidemics become too overpowering Catalogue of the Keiogijuku Library ,1912 Flamingo Social Studies for Junior Secondary Schools: For JSS 1 Ahmed Ibrahim, 2005*

English Language Teaching during Japan's Post-war Occupation Mayumi Ohara, John Buchanan, 2018-06-27 In 1945 Japan had to adjust very rapidly to sudden defeat to the arrival of the American Occupation and to the encounter with the English language together with a different outlook on many aspects of society and government This scholarly book is based on in depth interviews with people now aged who were school students at the time of the Occupation and who experienced first hand this immense cultural change The book considers the nature of the changing outlook including democratization the new role for the Japanese Emperor and all this represented for the place of tradition in Japanese life and the growing emphasis on individualism away from collectivism It discusses the changing system of education itself including new structures and new textbooks and relates the feelings of the participants as they came to terms with defeat and the language and culture of the former enemy Overall the book provides a fascinating insight into a key period of Japanese history The English Reader:

Building the Self-Efficacy Beliefs of English Language Learners and Teachers Mark Wyatt, Farahnaz Faez, 2024-02-20 Building the Self Efficacy Beliefs of English Language Learners and Teachers explores juxtaposes and bridges two fields of research that have developed separately the self efficacy beliefs of English language learners and the self efficacy beliefs of English language teachers The aim is to expand understanding in each field and highlight how the two areas can mutually inform each other This should encourage fresh perspectives providing direction for researchers and improving learning teaching and teacher education Empirical research suggests that English language learners and teachers who believe they can fulfil a task are more likely to succeed than those who believe they cannot Based on a deep understanding of how self efficacy beliefs are formed and developed this book illustrates how such beliefs can be supported and researched amongst English language learners and teachers Bringing together the work of educators and researchers working in contexts including Algeria Bulgaria Canada China Iran Israel Japan T rkiye the UK the USA and Vietnam this volume includes meta analyses largely focusing on quantitative data and empirical studies employing qualitative approaches and mixed methods Studies included examine factors impacting the development of language teachers self efficacy beliefs and investigate domain specific dimensions of the self efficacy beliefs of English language learners and teachers This rigorous and original volume will appeal to an international readership of scholars teachers teacher educators and researchers with interests in language education teacher education TESOL linguistics and educational psychology

Invisible Work Toshie Okita, 2002-03-22 There is growing recognition that context is important for bilingual language development but understanding of that context remains underdeveloped This innovative study spanning the fields of bilingualism ethnicity and family studies shows how language use in intermarried families is deeply intertwined with the experience of everyday childrearing in specific socio historical contexts This is why despite good intentions expert advice and effort bilingual child rearing often encounters difficulties Conversely drawing on in depth interviews of twenty eight Japanese mother British father families in the UK the study uses a focus on language issues to portray actual childrearing dynamics and situated ethnicity in intermarried families Presenting a vivid picture of the invisible work of mothers in these families and how they attempt to resolve conflicting pressures and demands over childrearing language and education the author shows the importance of recognition and shared responsibility This book will interest researchers practitioners and parents interested in bilingualism ethnically diverse families and multicultural education
