festivals Analysing a large body of multilingual eyewitness and commemorative accounts as well as visual and material objects Van Leuveren argues that French festival culture operated as a contested site where the diplomatic concerns of stakeholders from various national religious and social backgrounds fought for recognition   Transnational Crime Valsamis Mitsilegas,Saskia Hufnagel,Anton Moiseienko,Shi Yanan,Liu Mingxiang,2018-10-09 This volume offers a diverse set of perspectives on transnational crime Providing a wide ranging overview of the legal and policy issues that arise in connection with various forms of transnational crime the authors outline the criminal justice responses adopted across different jurisdictions Including contributions from high profile Chinese and European academics and practitioners across a variety of disciplines and methodological backgrounds the authors address some of the hitherto underexplored issues related to transnational crime These range from trafficking in cultural objects derived from illicit metal detecting and metal detecting tourism in China to the European approaches to criminalising the denial of historical truth The central theme of the book is that useful lessons can be drawn from each other s experiences and that a cross fertilisation of domestic approaches to transnational crime is essential to effective cooperation This book will be of use to students and academics of comparative criminal justice and anyone interested in transnational crime   Design of Axially Loaded Piles - European Practice F. European Conference on Object-Oriented Programming Jean Bezivin,Jean-Marie Hullot,Pierre Cointe,Henry Lieberman,2007-03-06 In October 1983

an informal meeting was organized in Le Cap d Agde with the help of the BIGRE bulletin Sixty people turned out to hear more than ten presentations on object oriented programming More important was their unanimous demand for other more structured encounters So about one year later the Object group was created by AFCET A second workshop was organized in Brest and again one year later in Paris each time showing increased attendance and interest The success of these meetings and the fact that similar activities were taking place in other European countries especially Great Britain and Germany led to the idea of an annual European Conference providing a forum for theorists and practitioners interested in the object oriented programming paradigm It is impossible to acknowledge here all the people and organizations that welcomed with great enthusiasm the birth of the ECOOP conference and contributed to its organization More than a hundred submissions were received and the program committee had the unpleasant task of turning down many valuable contributions We hope however that the selection of papers for ECOOP 87 emphasizes the fundamental issues and problems of object oriented programming and will point toward interesting future research directions
