SATURDAY I am almost a whole day old now I arrived yesterday That is as it seems to me And it must be so for if there was aday before yesterday I was not there when it happened or I shouldremember it It could be of course that it did happen and that Iwas not noticing Very well I will be very watchful now and if anyday before yesterdays happen I will make a note of it It will be bestto start right and not let the record get confused for some instincttells me that these details are going to be important to the historiansome day For I feel like an experiment I feel exactly like anexperiment it would be impossible for a person to feel more like anexperiment than I do and so I am coming to feel convinced that thatis what I AM an experiment just an experiment and nothing more Then if I am an experiment am I the whole of it No I think not Ithink the rest of it is part of it I am the main part of it but Ithink the rest of it has its share in the matter Is my positionassured or do I have to watch it and take care of it The latter perhaps Some instinct tells me that eternal vigilance is the priceof supremacy That is a good phrase I think for one so young Everything looks better today than it did yesterday In the rush offinishing up yesterday the mountains were left in a ragged condition and some of the plains were so cluttered with rubbish and remnants thatthe aspects were quite distressing Noble and beautiful works of artshould not be subjected to haste and this majestic new world is indeeda most noble and beautiful work And certainly marvelously near tobeing perfect notwithstanding the shortness of the time There are toomany stars in some places and not enough in others but that can be remedied presently no doubt The moon got loose last night and slid down and fell out of the scheme a very great loss it breaks my heart to think of it There isn't another thing among the ornaments and decorations that is comparable to it for beauty and finish It should have been fastened better If we can only get it back again But of course there is no telling where it went to And besides whoever gets it will hide it I know it because I would do it myself I believe I can be honest in all other matters but I already begin to realize that the core and center of my nature is love of the beautiful a passion for the beautiful and that it would not be safe to trust me with a moon that belonged to another person and that person didn't know I had it I could give up a moon that I found in the daytime because I should be afraid some one was looking but if I found it in the dark I am sure I should find some kind of an excuse for not saying anything about it For I do love moons they are so pretty and so romantic I wish we had five or six I would never go to bed I should never get tired lying on the moss bank and looking up at them Stars are good too I wish I could get some to put in my hair But I suppose I never can You would be surprised to find how far off they are for they do not look it When they first showed last night I tried to knock some down with a pole but it didn't reach which astonished me then I tried clods till I was all tired out but I never got one It was because I am left handed and cannot throw good Even when I aimed at the one I wasn't after I couldn't hit the other one though I did make some close shots for I saw the black blot of the clod sail right into the midst of the golden clusters forty or fifty times just barely missing them and if I could have held out a little longer maybe I could have got one not she she examined the horrid things in detail It took her some time to examine them all but she did her hateful duty I don't blame her for this careful examination the time she spent was I am sure enjoyable for I found considerable fascination in them myself Then she took the book to another librarian a male this time and he also took a long time to examine the unclothed ladies He must have found something of the same sort of fascination in them that I found In a letter to a friend Harriett E Whitmore he commented the truth is that when a Library expels a book of mine and leaves an unexpurgated Bible lying around where unprotected youth and age can get hold of it the deep unconscious irony of it delights me and doesn't anger me

Eve's Diary illustrated Mark Twain,2021-08-18 Eve's Diary illustrated Mark Twain This story puts a new twist on a very old story the story of Adam and Eve from the Bible In the Bible story Eve the first woman is created as a partner for Adam the first man When she tempts Adam into eating forbidden fruit they are thrown out of the garden of Eden Twain's story however is from Eve's point of view It paints a picture of her as fully independent with likes dislikes joys and sorrows She is separate from Adam and the story follows as she discovers him and eventually falls in love Twain takes the original Adam and Eve story and puts Eve in a positive light showing her as a complete person Eve's Diary 1906 is one of Twain's best stories in which he addresses gender equity issues using his iconic wit and satire We mention this story in The Unreliable Narrator as a Reliable Narrator in contrast with Extracts from Adam's Diary On the first day of her existence in the Garden of Eden Eve begins her diary believing herself to be part of a great experiment Eve demonstrates a profound appreciation of and curiosity about her surroundings and attempts to win the affection of the insensitive Adam The two remain together after being expelled from the Garden and after Eve's death Adam reflects that Eden existed wherever Eve did
