Essays on Life, Science and Society Shaw M. Akula, 2019-11-01 This collection of nine essays provides an entertaining and thoughtful glimpse into trending topics in our lives. The author Dr Akula tackles questions on life science and society from a biologist's perspective. The book covers a broad range of topics including common questions with complex answers intermixed with some religion and humor making it a great read to give your brain cells a boost. The field of Science is massive in fact it's the size of the universe which means picking just a few topics to discuss is no mean feat. This book is a start but there is more to come as Dr Akula explores various subjects to discuss and shed new light on. This collection of essays will appeal to scientists and to lay readers with an interest in the natural sciences. Its goal is to ensure that science isn't accessible to only a few people but is instead disseminated to many. After all a Smart World is the key to a Better Tomorrow and a Brighter Future.

A Simpler Life Talia Dan-Cohen, 2021-03-15 A Simpler Life approaches the developing field of synthetic biology by focusing on the experimental and institutional lives of practitioners in two labs at Princeton University. It highlights the distance between hyped technoscience and the more plodding and entrenched aspects of academic research. Talia Dan-Cohen follows practitioners as they wrestle with experiments, attempt to publish research findings and navigate the ins and outs of academic careers. Dan-Cohen foregrounds the practices and rationalities of these pursuits that give both researchers lives and synthetic life their distinctive contemporary forms. Rather than draw attention to avowed methodology, A Simpler Life investigates some of the more subtle and tectonic practices that bring knowledge, doubt and technological intervention into new configurations. In so doing, the book sheds light on the more general conditions of contemporary academic technoscience.

Nietzsche as Egoist and Mystic Andrew Milne, 2021-08-19 This book is an attempt to make sense of the tension in Nietzsche's work between the unashamedly egocentric and the apparently mystical. While scholars have tended to downplay one or other of these aspects, it is the author's contention that the two are not only compatible but mutually illuminating. This book demonstrates Nietzsche's sustained interest in mysticism from the time of The Birth of Tragedy right through to the end of his productive life. This book argues against situating Nietzsche's religious thought in the context of Buddhist or Christian mystical traditions, demonstrating the inadequacy of attempts to mediate between Nietzsche and Meister Eckhart and the Bodhisattva ideal of Mahayana Buddhism. Rather, it is argued that Nietzsche's egoism and mysticism are best understood in the intellectual context which he himself avowed, according to which his ancestors were Heraclitus, Empedocles, Spinoza and Goethe.

Philosophy, History and Biology: Essays in Honour of Jean Gayon Pierre-Olivier Méthot, 2023-06-26 This book builds on recent scholarship highlighted in the edited collections Philosophie histoire biologie m langes offerts Jean Gayon (Merlin Huneman 2018) and Knowledge of Life Today (Gayon Petit 2018, 2019). While honoring the career and the thought of Jean Gayon (1949–2018), this book showcases the continued relevance of Gayon's interdisciplinary work and illustrates his central place in the community of historians and philosophers of the life sciences.

Chapters in this book address Jean Gayon's intellectual trajectory from historical epistemology to the philosophy of biology the nature and scope of his philosophical approach to the history of science and his unique contributions to the history and epistemology of biological concepts and theories Drawing on published and unpublished sources the book explores some of Gayon's most significant contributions to the philosophy history and social studies of biology Essays on the Real

Church Dirk J. Smit,2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God's Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways Britannica Book of the Year 2014
