Saunders, Paul

Cornish, 2021-06-24 Conflict Landscapes explores the long under acknowledged and under investigated aspects of where and how modern conflict landscapes interact and conjoin with pre twentieth century places activities and beliefs as well as with individuals and groups Investigating and understanding the often unpredictable power and legacies of landscapes that have seen and often still viscerally embody the consequences of mass death and destruction the book shows through these landscapes the power of destruction to preserve refocus and often reconfigure the past Responding to the complexity of modern conflict the book offers a coherent integrated and sensitized hybrid approach which calls on different disciplines where they overlap in a shared common terrain Dealing with issues such as memory identity emotion and wellbeing the chapters tease out the human experience of modern conflict and its relationship to landscape Conflict Landscapes will appeal to a wide range of disciplines involved in studying conflict such as archaeology anthropology material culture studies art history cultural history cultural geography military history and heritage and museum studies The Red Cross Courier, 1941 Roman Britain's Pirate King Simon Elliott, 2022-08-11 A fascinating and engaging study of the naval commander who defied an emperor and ruled in Britain and northern Gaul for a decade Midwest Book Review In the middle of the third century AD Roman Britain's regional fleet the Classis Britannica disappeared It was never to return Soon the North Sea and English Channel were overrun by Germanic pirates preying upon the east and south coasts of Britain and the continental coast up to the Rhine Delta The western augustus senior emperor Maximian turned to a seasoned naval leader called Marcus Aurelius Mausaeus Valerius Carausius to restore order He was so successful that Maximian accused him of pocketing the plunder he'd recaptured and ordered his execution The canny Carausius moved first and in 286 usurped imperial authority creating a North Sea empire in northern Gaul and Britain that lasted until 296 Dubbed the pirate king he initially thrived seeing off early attempts by Maximian to defeat him However in the early 290s Maximian appointed his new caesar junior emperor Constantius Chlorus the father of Constantine the Great to defeat Carausius A seasoned commander Constantius Chlorus soon brought northern Gaul back into the imperial fold leaving Carausius controlling only Britain But that control would soon come to an end in dramatic fashion as recounted in this lively compelling history American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 17:1 Syed Abdul Hamid al-Junaid & Syed Aziz Anwar, M. Habib Chirzin, Mahmoud Dhaouadi, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Selling the Korean War Steven Casey, 2008-03-21 How presidents spark and sustain support for wars remains an enduring and significant problem Korea was the first limited war the U S experienced in the contemporary period the first recent war fought for something less than total victory In Selling the Korean War Steven Casey explores how President Truman and then Eisenhower tried to sell it to the American public Based on a massive array of primary sources Casey subtly explores the government's selling activities from all angles He looks at the halting and sometimes chaotic efforts of Harry Truman and Dean Acheson Dwight Eisenhower and John Foster Dulles He examines the relationships that they and their subordinates developed with a host of other institutions from Congress and the press to Hollywood and labor And he assesses the complex and fraught interactions between the military and war correspondents in the battlefield theater itself From high politics to bitter media spats Casey guides the reader through the domestic debates of this messy costly war He highlights the actions and calculations of colorful figures including Senators Robert Taft and JHoseph McCarthy and General Douglas MacArthur He details how the culture and work routines of Congress and the media influenced political tactics and daily news stories And he explores how different phases of the war threw up different problems from the initial disasters in the summer of 1950 to the giddy prospects of victory in October 1950 from the massive defeats in the wake of China s massive intervention to the lengthy period of stalemate fighting in 1952 and 1953

The Joy of Life Margaret Werth,2002-11-05 Werth weaves together complex analyses of these paintings and others by Manet Gauguin Seurat Cezanne and less well known artists with a consideration of their critical reception literary parallels and the social and cultural milieu She moves from artistic concerns with tradition and avant gardism decoration and social art composition and figuration to contemporary debates over human origins and social organization
