Loertscher s resource based teaching Part I deals with library skills such as location and arrangement indexing systems study and research aids and reference tools Part II focuses on resource based instruction by general subject groups such as humanities social studies science and vocational education Reading behind Bars Jill Grunenwald,2019-07-02 A fascinating look into a world many of us never see and a powerful story about one woman s journey to find her own strength with a clear message of the importance of books and information for all Booklist American Library Association starred review Shortlisted for the 2020 Social Justice Advocacy Book Award by In the Margins Book Awards In December 2008 twentysomething Jill Grunenwald graduated with her master s degree in library science ready to start living her dream of becoming a librarian But the economy had a different idea As the Great Recession reared its ugly head jobs were scarce After some searching however Jill was lucky enough to snag one of the few librarian gigs left in her home state of Ohio The catch The job was behind bars as the prison librarian at a men s minimum security prison Talk about baptism by fire As an untested twentysomething woman to say that the job was out of Jill s comfort zone was an understatement She was forced to adapt on the spot speedily learning to take the metal detectors hulking security guards and colorful inmates in stride Over the course of a little less than two years Jill came to see past the bleak surroundings and the orange jumpsuits and recognize the humanity of the men stuck behind bars They were just like every other library patron persons who simply wanted to read to be educated and entertained through the written word By helping these inmates Jill simultaneously began to recognize the humanity in everyone and to discover inner strength that she never knew she had At turns poignant and hilarious Reading behind Bars is a perfect read for fans of Orange Is the New Black and Shakespeare Saved My Life Serving Homeschooled Teens and Their Parents Maureen T. Lerch,Janet Welch,2004-05-30 Today more than a million students are being educated at home and that figure increases at a rate of 7 14% annually Homeschooling is a growing trend in our society and public librarians are being called upon with increasing frequency to serve the needs of homeschooled students So just what are the needs of the homeschooled teen and how can you and your library meet those needs A former young adult librarian and a homeschool parent have joined forces to create this insightful guide and answer that question After reviewing the developmental and social needs of teens the authors demonstrate how those needs may be met in the public library setting You ll find a wealth of ideas for adapting every facet of your library service for this growing population from developing a homeschool collection to expanding services and creating special programs You ll also find suggestions on how to market what your library has to offer to homeschoolers You may even discover some new ways to employ the talents and time of these students and their families Extensive resource lists conclude the volume they will help you better serve home educated teens and their parents
