Conference organised by PSG Institute of Management in 2021 Managerial Accounting Jerry J. Weygandt, Paul D. Kimmel, Donald E. Kieso, 2009-10-19 Many corporate managers struggle to see the relevance of accounting in their everyday responsibilities Weygandt shows them how managerial accounting information fits in the larger context of business so they are better able to understand the important concepts The new Do It feature reinforces the basics by providing quick hitting examples of brief exercises The chapters also incorporate the All About You AAY feature as well as the Accounting Across the Organization AAO boxes that highlight the impact of accounting concepts With these features readers will have numerous opportunities to think about what they have just read and then apply that knowledge to sample problems Smart Data James A. George, James A. Rodger, 2010-03-25 The authors advocate attention to smart data strategy as an organizing element of enterprise performance optimization They believe that smart data as a corporate priority could revolutionize government or commercial enterprise performance much like six sigma or total quality as organizing paradigms have done in the past This revolution has not yet taken place because data historically resides in the province of the information resources organization Solutions that render data smart are articulated in technoid terms versus the language of the board room While books such as Adaptive Information by Pollock and Hodgson ably describe the current state of the art their necessarily technical tone is not conducive to corporate or agency wide qualitative change Accounting for Cultural Heritage Management Michela Magliacani, Valentina Toscano, 2023-10-09 The transformative role of culture its ability to create value for the benefit of current and future generations is widely recognized by academics of many disciplines professionals and policymakers Notwithstanding how culture can be a driving force for economic growth a source of welfare and tools for social inclusion still deserves to be investigated at various levels starting with local communities This book attempts to explain the relevance of accounting knowledge for managing cultural heritage by sustainable resilient accountable organizations regardless of their public or private institutional form This book aims at understanding the role of cultural heritage in the economy in society and in facing the new challenges deriving from the enactment of the UN Sustainable Development agenda as well as the pandemic emergency from COVID 19 It adopts a managerial accounting studies approach to provide answers that can be applied in any organizational context The results achieved from the field research are critically discussed under the theoretical frameworks referring to the theory of value and its creation From the findings and their discussion a conceptual model based on empiricism is proposed for managing cultural heritage of communities under sustainable perspective even in times of crisis It will be essential reading for academics and students of cultural heritage management sustainability and crisis management in organisations Catalog of Copyright Entries.
