Degener, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2003 On June 19 1864 the United States warship Kearsarge sank the Confederate raider Alabama off the coast of Cherbourg France in one of the most celebrated naval engagements of the American Civil War When Kearsarge later anchored off the French resort town of Boulogne sur Mer it was thronged by curious visitors one of whom was the artist Edouard Manet Although he did not witness the historic battle Manet made a painting of it partly as an attempt to regain the respect of his colleagues after having been ridiculed for his works in the 1864 Salon Manet s picture of the naval engagement and his portrait of the victorious Kearsarge belong to a group of his seascapes of Boulogne whose unorthodox perspective and composition would profoundly influence the course of French painting Manet s paintings and watercolors related to the battle are considered in depth alongside numerous prints photographs letters and archival newspaper illustrations that illuminate the history of the episode and in some cases dispel lingering misconceptions Manet's other Boulogne seascapes are also discussed in terms of their complex chronology and evolution A final chapter touches on some of the sources for the seascapes from Old Master paintings to Japanese woodblock prints and traces the influence of the seascapes on such artists as Gustave Courbet James Abbott McNeill Whistler and Claude Monet BOOK JACKET Select Journal of Foreign Periodical Literature Andrews Norton, Charles Folsom, 1834

The Romance of Modernism George T. M. Shackelford, 2006 Essay by George T. M. Shackelford The Colonial Comedy: Imperialism in the French Realist Novel Jennifer Yee, 2016-08-12 Nineteenth-century French Realism focuses on metropolitan France with Paris as its undisputed heart Through Jennifer Yee's close reading of the great novelists of the French realist and naturalist canon Balzac Flaubert Zola Maupassant The Colonial Comedy reveals that the colonies play a role at a distance even in the most apparently metropolitan texts In what Edward Said called geographical notations of race and imperialism the presence of the colonies off stage is apparent as imported objects colonial merchandise and individuals whose colonial experience is transformative Indeed the realist novel registers the presence of the emerging global world system through networks of importation financial speculation and immigration as well as direct colonial violence and power structures The literature of the century responds to the last decades of French slavery and direct colonialism notably in Algeria but also economic imperialism and the extension of French influence elsewhere Far from imperialist triumphalism in the realist novel exotic objects are portrayed as fake or mass-produced for the growing bourgeois market while economic imperialism is associated with fraud and manipulation The deliberate contrast of colonialism and exoticism within the metropolitan novel and ironic distancing of colonial narratives reveal the realist mode to be capable of questioning its own epistemological basis The Colonial Comedy argues for the existence in the nineteenth century of a Critical Orientalism characterized by critique of its own discursive foundations Using the tools of literary analysis within a materialist approach The Colonial Comedy opens up the domestic Paris-Provinces axis to signifying chains pointing towards the colonial space
