It is important to be a thoughtful reader. Your teacher will provide you with some deep thinking questions about the text. To really understand the question, use the following strategies:

Questioning Strategies:

1. Circle the key words in the question.
2. Underline and number the question types.
3. RSQ to create a topic sentence
4. RSQ each question part and CONNECT TO THE TEXT!
5. Go back and edit!

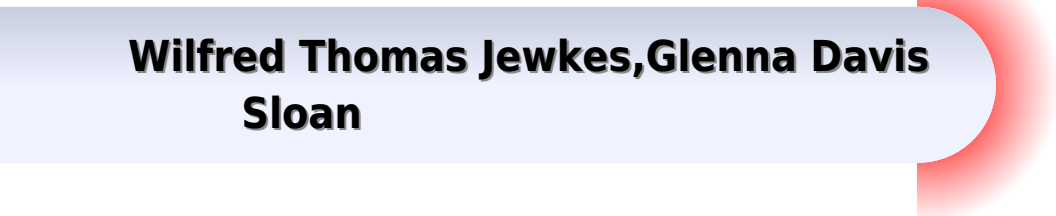

Once you understand what is being asked, it is important to write a PARAGRAPH detailing your answer. See the rubric below for how your PARAGRAPH will be graded.

Book Club responses are graded on a 5-point scale. You are expected to answer in a paragraph containing at least 3-5 sentences. Here is the scale below.

| Criteria                                                                                                                     | Points   |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| Must have a correct header: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Date</li><li>• Book Title</li><li>• Pages Read</li></ul> | 1 point  |
| RSQ to create a topic sentence with NO DETAILS in it! This just begins your paragraph.                                | 1 point  |
| Use questioning strategies to answer ALL parts of the question.                                                       | 1 point  |
| All thoughts are connected back to the text and relate to the story.                                                         | 1 point  |
| Capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and editing are correct.                                                              | 1 point  |
| Total                                                                                                                        | 5 points |
