Myanmar Media in Transition Lisa Brooten, Jane Madlyn McElhone, Gayathry Venkiteswaran, 2019-05-13 Myanmar Media in Transition Legacies Challenges and Change is the first volume to overview the country's contemporary media landscape providing a critical assessment of the sector during the complex and controversial political transition Moving beyond the focus on journalism and freedom of the press that characterizes many media focused volumes Myanmar Media in Transition also explores developments in fiction filmmaking social movement media and social media Documenting changes from both academic and practitioner perspectives the twenty one chapters reinforce the volume's theoretical arguments by providing on the ground factual and experiential data intended to open useful dialogue between key stakeholders in the media government and civil society sectors Providing an overview of media studies in the country Myanmar Media in Transition addresses current challenges such as the use of social media in spreading hate speech and the shifting boundaries of free expression by placing them within Myanmar's broader historic social political and economic context Challenges to Press Freedom of Private News Media in Myanmar Ohnmar Nyunt, 2018 The Contest of the Century Geoff A. Dyer, 2014-02-04 From the former Financial Times Beijing bureau chief a balanced and far seeing analysis of the emerging competition between China and the United States that will dominate twenty first century world affairs an inside account of Beijing's quest for influence and an explanation of how America can come out on top The structure of global politics is shifting rapidly After decades of rising China has entered a new and critical phase where it seeks to turn its economic heft into global power In this deeply informed book Geoff Dyer makes a lucid and convincing argument that China and the United States are now embarking on a great power style competition that will dominate the century This contest will take place in every arena from control of the seas where China's new navy is trying to ease the United States out of Asia and reassert its traditional leadership to rewriting the rules of the global economy with attempts to turn the renminbi into the predominant international currency toppling the dominance of the U S dollar And by investing billions to send its media groups overseas Beijing hopes to shift the global debate about democracy and individual rights Eyeing the high ground of international politics China is taking the first steps in an ambitious global agenda Yet Dyer explains how China will struggle to unseat the United States China's new ambitions are provoking intense anxiety especially in Asia while America's global influence has deep roots If Washington can adjust to a world in which it is no longer dominant but still immensely powerful it can withstand China's challenge With keen insight based on a deep local knowledge offering the reader visions of coastal Chinese beauty pageants and secret submarine bases lockstep Beijing military parades and the neon media screens of Xinhua exported to New York City's Times Square The Contest of the Century is essential reading at a time of great uncertainty about America's future a road map for retaining a central role in the world Globalizing Sport George H.
