These religious, social, cultural and civil law-related issues permeate nearly every aspect of American life. The Commission believes that a national dialogue concerning these subjects is essential for ensuring that all citizens, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, or religion, are able to live in peace and harmony.

These findings, by themselves, do not really demonstrate that the political system is not democratic; in effect, simply agreeing that the government is not democratic (see, for example, the New Democracy/Coalition system, which managed to "democratize" the 1996-1998 period, but is faulted now as not being democratic because the opposition has captured all three seats that the ruling coalition controls).

8. Explain the significance of L-type channels and the uncertainty about their subunit structure and function.

It is possible the corresponding elements of these embeddings will be clearly identified for the two networks. Significantly, however, Figure 6c also shows that Gating is consistently around the 0.5 mark, rather than being clearly high or low. This also goes against the evidence that Gating is used both less and less.
