Jones,Fred Thompson,2007-02-01 This book focuses on the inherent contradiction between bureaucracy hierarchy and the vision inspired by the architecture of modern information technology of a more egalitarian culture in public organizations We agree with Evans and Wurster and others who have argued that in the future knowledge based productive relationships will be designed around fluid teambased collaborative communities either within organizations i e deconstructed value chains or in collaborative alliances such as those with amorphous and permeable corporate boundaries characteristic of companies in the Silicon Valley that is deconstructed supply chains In such relationships everyone can communicate richly with everyone else on the basis of shared standards and like the Internet itself these relationships will eliminate the need to channel information thereby eliminating the trade off between information bandwidth and connectivity The possibility or the threat of random access and information symmetry they conclude will destroy all hierarchies whether of logic or power The Marketing / Accounting Interface Robin Roslender,Richard M.S. Wilson,2013-09-13 When marketing managers and financial managers join forces within any business the result can often be poor communication on financial criteria and goals The risk of this situation occurring is inevitably present when those with different professional backgrounds and roles are working in accordance with their own norms In his seminal 1956 paper on general systems theory the economist Kenneth Boulding referred to the phenomenon of specialised ears and generalised deafness which can be seen to exist when marketing managers are financially illiterate or when financial managers lack the necessary insights to design implement and operate accounting systems which are useful to marketing managers in carrying out their roles It is increasingly difficult to attach credence to the idea of marketing managers who lack financial skills or financial managers who fail to relate to the context in which marketing managers operate Understanding the marketing accounting interface is therefore important in generating emergent properties from the interaction of marketers and accountants whereby the whole is greater than the sum of the parts The chapters in this volume seek to address this challenge This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Marketing Management Managerial Accounting , N.A.A. Management Accounting ,1926 Developing Knowledge

Workers in the Printing and Publishing Industries Bill Cope, Robin Freeman, 2002 Tenth and final volume in the C 2 C series it provides an introduction to the intermeshed issues surrounding knowledge and learning focusing on the particular case of the printing and publishing industries It defines knowledge management in general terms and relates knowledge management to the specifics of this industry sector It discusses the role of formal documentation in the development of explicit knowledge management systems and the essential role of publishing and content dissemination within the processes of knowledge management It also draws links between knowledge management and new forms of learning be these organisational learning or personal learning Includes notes on contributors diagrams notes and references Publication is a joint project of the publisher and RMIT University based on research funded under the Infrastructure and Industry Competitiveness Scheme EPICS of the Commonwealth Department of Industry Science and Resources Published in both paperback and downloadable PDF format Handbook of Accounting, Accountability and Governance Garry D. Carnegie, Christopher J. Napier, 2023-10-12 This Handbook explores how accounting accountability and governance are interconnected and demonstrates that they must operate effectively together in establishing good personal and organizational behaviour in entities of all types around the globe It will be crucial for academic researchers working within the fields of accounting economics corporate governance accountability management and business and be beneficial for accounting economics and management professionals seeking to clarify and expand upon their knowledge for effective application
