Convictions of Conscience Brenda J. McMahon, Lisa R. Merriweather, 2019-10-01 Convictions of Conscience How Voices From the Margins Inform Public Actions and Educational Leadership seeks to help educational leaders to develop the competencies and capacities required to create socially just and equitable schools It is for educational leaders interested in transforming systems and decolonizing education rooted socially structurally and ideologically in hegemony This edited volume promotes the questioning of assumptions embedded in neoliberal new managerialism practices that often undergird the preparation and training of school leaders New managerialism in higher education seeks to understand the market forces in order to cater to the idiosyncratic often self promoting needs and interests of the few and seeks to respond with programs and policies aligned with those forces and interest This volume suggests that the confluence of context theory and pedagogical strategies within the field of educational leadership should inform curricular decisions in educational leadership preparation programs and such programs should be designed to prepare school leaders as both activists and advocates for marginalized students parents communities and staff Convictions of Conscience is a call on educational leaders who are committed to success for all students to reject new managerial approaches at all levels of educational leadership and is an invitation to expand their emphasis to concerns rooted in human context particularly identity politics Towards this end a decolonizing philosophically grounded practice of educational leadership that disrupts static relations within the structures of power is required to move toward a more socially just praxis The chapter authors seek to problematize understandings of diversity and inclusion by emphasizing the integral role of equity and social justice as critical dimensions of human relationships Additionally chapter authors intentionally interrogate the socio cultural dimensions that affect educational leaders Final Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement: Chapters 1 through 9 United States. Department of the Air Force, 2000 The Future is Black Carl A. Grant, Ashley N. Woodson, Michael J. Dumas, 2020-07-29 The Future is Black presents Afropessimism as an opportunity to think in provocative and disruptive ways about race racial equality multiculturalism and the pursuit of educational justice The vision is not a coherent delimited conversation but a series of experiences with Afropessimism as a radical analytic situated within critical Black studies Activists educators caregivers kin and all those who love Black children are invited to make sense of the contemporary Black condition including a theorization of Black suffering Black fugitivity and Black futurity These three concepts provide the foundation for the book's inquiry and contribute to the examination of Black educational opportunity experience and outcomes The book not only explores how schooling becomes complicit in and serves as a site of Black material and psychic suffering but also examines the possibilities of education as a site of fugitivity of hope of escape and as a space within which to imagine an emancipation yet to be realized Homestead Air Force Base (AFB), Disposal and Reuse, 1994 Better Teachers, Better Schools Valerie Hill-Jackson, Delia Stafford, 2017-02-01 We all know teachers who in the face of insurmountable district and school level

challenges inspire underserved students to succeed These teachers are more than good they are stars Haberman maintains that school districts still gamble when selecting teachers as an overwhelming number are not stars and are unprepared or underprepared to work effectively with marginalized students Haberman explains that teacher selection is more important than teacher training The ability to identify educators with the necessary social justice or relational characteristics may lead to an increase in academic achievement among learners as well as lower teacher attrition Consequently all those who are interested in building America's teaching force with stars including human resource managers for K 12 school districts administrators teachers teacher advocates teacher education faculty and graduate students will benefit from this book Better Teachers Better Schools is a must read for two main reasons First the achievement gap between 16 million children in poverty and their mainstream counterparts is continuing to become even wider Many urban students are constantly subjected to educational barriers which limits their future opportunities These learners deserve teachers that know more than content but who can build relationships in order to leverage learning with greater outcomes Second Haberman was one of the most prolific producers of teachers to date He reminds us that quality school systems built on the back of quality teachers benefit our society Better Teachers Better Schools offers a refreshing take on what it means to be a star teacher by sharing some of Haberman's most requested writings as well as new narratives and research that corroborate his star theory The contributions in this volume give us a window into Haberman's seven relational dispositions of star teachers or teachers ideology put into behavior Also each chapter contains learning outcomes and reflection questions for discussion

News, Neoliberalism, and Miami's Fragmented Urban Space Moses Shumow, Robert E. Gutsche Jr., 2016-11-23 News Neoliberalism and Miami's Fragmented Urban Space examines cultural and social forces responsible for inequalities that have emerged in the rampant development of Miami as a world city This book argues that neoliberal movements rely on the power of journalistic discourses to authorize and legitimize harmful social acts such as gentrification Moses Shumow and Robert E Gutsche Jr provide original analyses of intersections among memory race capitalism and journalistic power particularly at a time of immense political and environmental change The authors examine changes in neighborhoods and in public private developments that are bound to widen an already great divide between classes and races in South Florida
