

IB Extended Essay Information and Guidelines

What is the Extended Essay?

The Extended Essay is a required component of the Diploma Program. Working with an advisor, Diploma candidates conduct an in-depth study of a topic of their choosing and gain experience in

- developing research and communication skills
- developing the skills necessary for creative and critical thinking

The Extended Essay is

- the result of 40 hours of independent work
- 4000 words in length
- mailed to the IBO for external assessment
- combined with the Theory of Knowledge grade. The combined score of TOK and the Extended Essay can add up to 3 points to a candidate's composite score.

What subjects can the Extended Essay be done in?

An Extended Essay can be done by anyone taking the following subjects

- * Biology
- * Design Technology
- * English
- * History

For those who took a Group 6 elective in the junior year, the Extended Essay can also be done in

- * Music
- * Physics
- * Visual Arts

How do I get started?

Step 1 – pick a subject from the list above and find an advisor

Step 2 – complete the Advisor Agreement form and return it to Ms. Embree no later than June 9th

Step 3 – schedule and attend a meeting with your advisor to establish a plan for your summer research. A copy of your summer research plan is due to Ms. Embree no later than June 15th.

What do I need to make sure I'm aware of?

As the Extended Essay is a required component of the full diploma program, the following deadlines must be met in order to remain a full diploma candidate

Education Dr Ghanshyam Vatsa, Gireesh Tripathi, Priyanka Malhotra, Ms. Kshitija Landge, 2022-09-26 This book presents a critical investigation of the creation dissemination and consumption of HRE as well as an analysis of how the discourse is created historically socially and politically via the practice of global organizations and local NGOs The concept that HRE is formed of ideas of human and education which are both complicated and have a myriad of facets is presented at the beginning of the book The book demonstrates how over the course of time a dominant discourse of HRE which was constructed by the institutional framework of the United Nations has come to prominence It also demonstrates how this dominant discourse is reproduced and validated through the practice of intermediary NGOs involved in HRE activities to community groups A large number of non governmental organizations NGOs all over the globe are using human rights education HRE as a method of community empowerment with the strong conviction that it would assist people in leading better lives These processes may be understood in a number of different ways one of which is that they convert universal human rights speech using words and symbols that make them relevant to the day to day lives of individuals and that have cultural resonance However an alternative and more radical viewpoint is that such processes should participate people in modes of critical examination into the ways that current power structures keep the status quo and regulate not only how we comprehend and speak regarding social injustice and but also how we act on it This is a more radical perspective
