How did political conditions in China in the early 20th century contribute to the emergence of a Communist State?

- China had ended its 100 years of humiliation following the defeats in the Opium wars with Britain and war with Japan.
- The resentment of foreign domination fueled the Boxer Rebellion in 1898.
- In the early 20th century, living standards were very poor and people were struggling to survive. They were also being heavily taxed by the government, and suffered from high inflation and corrupt government officials. There was strong resentment of foreigners, and despair at the inability of the government to bring about the needed reforms.
