Gene Kelly Earl J. Hess, Pratibha A. Dabholkar, 2020-10-02 Whether as a curiosity or a beloved idol Gene Kelly 1912 1996 lives on in our cultural memory as a fantastic dancer in MGM musicals especially Singin' in the Rain But dancing however extraordinary was only one of his many gifts This book for the first time offers a full picture of Gene Kelly as the Renaissance man he actually was dancer yes but also choreographer actor clown singer director teacher and mentor Kelly was star of radio and television as well as film avant garde as artist and auteur but also ahead of the curve in opening the world of dance to differences of race ethnicity and gender Gene Kelly The Making of a Creative Legend takes us from Kelly's youth in Depression era Pittsburgh through his years on Broadway and ascendance to stardom in Hollywood Authors Hess and Dabholkar pay particular attention to his work with the US Navy solo directing and lesser known but considerable accomplishments in television radio and on the stage in later years The book gives us a rare inside look at Kelly's relationships with dancing partners and peers from Leslie Caron Vera Ellen and Cyd Charisse to Fred Astaire and at his directorial collaboration with Stanley Donen and Vincent Minnelli and at his solo directing The authors show us significant but little examined facets of Kelly's character and career such as the political convictions that got him graylisted in Hollywood his passion for creating cine dance and serving as an ambassador of dance in America and his forging of links between dance civil rights and the common man Steeped in research and replete with photographs this career biography uniquely encompasses all phases of Gene Kelly's life and work and finally gives us a full portrait of this central figure in the history of the film musical during Hollywood's Golden Age Summer for the Gods Edward J Larson, 2020-06-16 The Pulitzer Prize winning history of the Scopes Trial and the battle over evolution and creation in America's schools In the summer of 1925 the sleepy hamlet of Dayton Tennessee became the setting for one of the twentieth century's most contentious courtroom dramas pitting William Jennings Bryan and the anti Darwinists against a teacher named John Scopes represented by Clarence Darrow and the ACLU in a famous debate over science religion and their place in public education That trial marked the start of a battle that continues to this day in cities and states throughout the country Edward Larson's classic Summer for the Gods winner of the Pulitzer Prize in History is the single most authoritative account of this pivotal event An afterword assesses the state of the battle between creationism and evolution and points the way to how it might potentially be resolved Film & the Law Steve Greenfield, 2001-09-07 This text has several aims that seek to set out the boundaries of the study of film and the law It draws upon the work that has been produced to date by both American and English law academics but offers a critical analysis of where the subject area is and where further study may take it Great North American Stage Directors Volume 2 Jonathan Chambers, 2024-01-25 This volume assesses the accomplishments of three mid 20th century North American stage directors Harold Clurman Orson Welles and Margo Jones Though their theatre making endeavours were distinct each produced work that challenged preconceived notions of theatre making all while working within the structure of a company As directors drawn to the potential rewards of collaboration all also were keenly adept at understanding how the relationship with a company of collaborators is often marked by struggle and crisis The essays in this volume explore how these accomplished directors not only created bold work but also drew on the complex energies of the theatre companies with which they worked to reimagine the shape and scope of theatre directing The Great North American Stage Directors series provides an authoritative account of the art of directing in North America by examining the work of twenty four major practitioners from the late 19th century to the present Each of the eight volumes examines three directors and offers an overview of their practices theoretical ideas and contributions to modern theatre The studies chart the life and work of each major North American theatre director placing his or her achievement in the context of other important theatre practitioners and broader social history Written by a team of leading experts the series presents the genealogy of directing in North America while simultaneously chronicling crucial trends and championing contemporary interpretation Screening a Lynching Matthew Bernstein, 2009 The Leo Frank case of 1913 was one of the most sensational trials of the early twentieth century capturing international attention Frank a northern Jewish factory supervisor in Atlanta was convicted for the murder of Mary Phagan a young laborer native to the South largely on the perjured testimony of an African American janitor The trial was both a murder mystery and a courtroom drama marked by lurid sexual speculation and overt racism The subsequent lynching of Frank in 1915 by an angry mob only made the story more irresistible to historians playwrights novelists musicians and filmmakers for decades to come Matthew H Bernstein is the first scholar to examine the feature films and television programs produced in response to the trial and lynching of Leo Frank He considers the four major surviving American texts Oscar Micheaux's film Murder in Harlem 1936 Mervyn LeRoy's film They Won't Forget 1937 the Profiles in Courage television episode John M Slaton 1964 and the two part NBC miniseries The Murder of Mary Phagan 1988 Bernstein explains that complex issues like racism anti-Semitism class resentment and sectionalism were at once irresistibly compelling and painfully difficult to portray in the mass media Exploring the cultural and industrial contexts in which the works were produced Bernstein considers how they succeeded or failed in representing the case's many facets Film and television shows can provide worthy interpretations of history Bernstein argues even when they depart from the historical record Screening a Lynching is an engrossing meditation on how film and television represented a traumatic and tragic episode in American history one that continues to fascinate people to this day Margo Helen Sheehy, 1989 In the United States today more than three hundred resident nonprofit professional theatres bring both classics of world drama and daring new plays to life for audiences across the country In a recent year American resident theatres produced over three thousand plays for an audience of fifteen million During that same period the commercial theatre on Broadway mounted just thirty two productions Now New York looks to regional theatre for new plays in the past decade every Pulitzer Prize winning play has originated not on Broadway but in nonprofit regional houses Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
