U.S. Army Weapons Systems 2010-2011 U.S. Department of the Army, 2010-03-30 An up to date and in depth look at the weapons used today by the United States Weapon Systems ,2010 Weapon Systems 2012 ,2011 The Army Communicator ,2008 Hitler, Donitz, and the Baltic Sea David Grier, 2013-07-10 The popular conception of Hitler in the final years of World War II is that of a deranged Fuhrer stubbornly demanding the defense of every foot of ground on all fronts and ordering hopeless attacks with nonexistent divisions To imply that Hitler had a rational plan to win the war flies in the face of widely accepted interpretations but historian Howard D Grier persuasively argues here that Hitler did possess a strategy to regain the initiative in 1944 45 and that the Baltic theater played the key role in his plan In examining that strategy Grier answers lingering questions about the Third Reich s final months and also provides evidence of its emphasis upon naval affairs and of Admiral Karl Donitz s influence in shaping Hitler s grand strategy Donitz intended to starve Britain into submission and halt the shipment of American troops and supplies to Europe with a fleet of new Type XXI U boats But to test the new submarines and train their crews the Nazis needed control of the Baltic Sea and possession of its ports and to launch their U boat offensive they needed Norway the only suitable location that remained after the loss of France in the summer of 1944 This work analyzes German naval strategy from 1944 to 1945 and its role in shaping the war on land in the Baltic The first six chapters provide an operational history of warfare on the northern sector of the eastern front and give evidence of the navy s demands that the Baltic coast be protected in order to preserve U boat training areas The next three chapters look at possible reasons for Hitler s defense of the Baltic coast concluding that the most likely reason was Hitler s belief in Donitz s ability to turn the tide of war with his new submarines A final chapter discusses Donitz s personal and ideological relationship with Hitler his influence in shaping overall strategy and the reason Hitler selected the admiral as his successor rather than a general or Nazi Party official With Grier s thorough examination of Hitler s strategic motives and the reasons behind his decision to defend coastal sectors in the Baltic late in the war readers are offered an important new interpretation of events for their consideration 2010 Weapon Systems , Hitler's Pre-emptive War Henrik O. Lunde, 2009-05-11 An excellent history of the often overlooked WWII campaign in which Hitler secured a vital resource lifeline for the Third Reich Library Journal After Hitler conquered Poland and was still fine tuning his plans against France the British began to exert control over the coastline of neutral Norway an action that threatened to cut off Germany s iron ore conduit to Sweden and outflank from the start its hegemony on the Continent The Germans responded with a dizzying series of assaults using every tool of modern warfare developed in the previous generation Airlifted infantry mountain troops and paratroopers were dispatched to the north seizing Norwegian strongpoints while forestalling larger but more cumbersome Allied units The German navy also set sail taking a brutal beating at the hands of Britannia but ensuring with its sacrifice that key harbors would be held open for resupply As dive bombers soared overhead small but elite German units

traversed forbidding terrain to ambush Allied units trying to forge inland At Narvik some six thousand German troops battled twenty thousand French and British until the Allies were finally forced to withdraw by the great disaster in France which had then gotten underway Henrik Lunde a native Norwegian and former US Special Operations colonel has written the most objective account to date of a campaign in which twentieth century military innovation found its first fertile playing field
