Mining Morality William P. George, 2019-10-11. Employing self sharpening tools found in the work of theologian and philosopher Bernard Lonergan. Pope Francis encyclical Laudato si and international law. William P. George brings mining to personal and collective moral awareness by prospecting for ethics at selected sites: 1 Butte Montana the Richest Hill on Earth once bound to Chuquicamata Chile by a company that spanned two continents and nearly owned a state; 2 the tiny island nation of Nauru called Pleasant Island until it was devastated by phosphate mining and the breaking of a sacred trust by foreign powers; 3 the deep seabed governed by the United Nations Law of the Sea a constitution for the oceans that regards much of the resource rich seabed as humankind's common heritage; 4 Africa with its uranium mines but also its conflicts over what being nuclear means in the wake of colonialism apartheid and Hiroshima; and 5 mineral rich asteroids speeding through space where mining rights are contested even as space entrepreneurs look to become the world's first trillionaires. George introduces readers to remarkable moral miners: the women of Butte and Chuquicamata a World Court judge from Sri Lanka and the Rocket Boys of Coalwood West Virginia to name a few and leads them to consider not only the morality of mining what's good and not so good about resource extraction but also the mining of morality a venture that Socrates called the examined life.
