Mass Supervision Vincent Schiraldi, 2023-09-12 With a foreword by Bruce Western Named one of the Best Books of the Year by NPR Shortlisted 2024 Stephan Russo Book Prize for Social Justice The most comprehensive critique of probation and parole and a provocative and compelling argument for abolishing both from the former Probation Commissioner of New York City Imagine if probation didn't exist And I came to you with 80 million and 30 000 people the courts considered troubled and troubling And you could do anything you wanted with that money to make New York City safer and help people turn their lives around Would you go out and hire a thousand civil service protected bureaucrats to supervise people as they piss in a cup once a week and to tell them to go forth and sin no more Vincent Schiraldi's Job Interview with NYC Mayor Mike Bloomberg We've heard a lot in recent years about the nearly 2.1 million people incarcerated in American prisons and jails But what about the approximately 4 million more who are on probation and parole monitored by the state at great expense and at risk of being sent to prison at the whim of a probation or parole officer for the least imaginable infraction Vincent Schiraldi was New York City probation commissioner under Mayor Bloomberg supervising a system charged with monitoring 30 000 people on a daily basis In Mass Supervision he combines firsthand experience with deep research on the inadequately explored practices of probation and parole to illustrate how these forms of state supervision have strayed from their original goal of providing constructive and rehabilitative alternatives to prison They have become instead Schiraldi argues a recidivism trap for people trying to lead productive lives in the wake of a criminal conviction Schiraldi offers the first full and up to date account of these two key aspects of our criminal justice system showing that these practices increase incarceration have little impact on crime rates and needlessly disrupt countless lives Ultimately he argues that they should be dramatically downsized or even abolished completely Frankenstein Was a Vegetarian Michael Owen

Jones, 2022-06-27 In Frankenstein Was a Vegetarian Essays on Food Choice Identity and Symbolism Michael Owen Jones tackles topics often overlooked in foodways At the outset he notes it was Victor Frankenstein's daemon in Mary Shelley's novel that advocated vegetarianism not the scientist whose name has long been attributed to his creature Jones explains how we communicate through what we eat the connection between food choice and who we are or want to appear to be the ways that many of us self-medicate moods with foods and the nature of disgust He presents fascinating case studies of religious bigotry and political machinations triggered by rumored bans on pork the last meal requests of prisoners about to be executed and the Utopian vision of Percy Bysshe Shelley one of England's greatest poets that was based on a vegetable diet like the creature's meals in Frankenstein Jones also scrutinizes how food is used and abused on the campaign trail how gender issues arise when food meets politics and how eating preferences reflect the personalities and values of politicians one of whom was elected president and then impeached twice Throughout the book Jones deals with food as symbol as well as analyzes the link between food choice and multiple identities Aesthetics morality and politics likewise loom large in his inquiries In the final two chapters Jones applies these concepts to overhauling penal policies and practices that make food part of the pains of imprisonment and looks at transforming the counseling of diabetes patients who number in the millions

Journal of the Senate of the United States of America United States. Congress. Senate, 2002 The Prison Industry Bianca Tylek, Worth Rises, 2025-05-06 A meticulous exposé of who profits from incarceration culminating in a compelling case for abolition Based on years of research by the criminal justice organization Worth Rises best known for campaigns that have revolutionized prison telecom and made prison and jail communication free in cities and states around the country The Prison Industry maps the range of ways in which private corporations often with their government partners make money off incarceration It further details the gross extraction of wealth from incarcerated people and their families who have been brutalized by overpolicing and mass surveillance Chapters on labor telecom healthcare community corrections and more explore the origin story of privatization for each sector and how much money is in it for the corporations involved Stretching far beyond private prisons to look at all the sectors that benefit from incarceration the authors illuminate the methods used to extract resources from public coffers and communities which corporations are most active and how they partner with governments and the harms these profit based approaches to justice cause people families and communities Ultimately The Prison Industry makes a compelling case for dismantling the prison industry and prison abolition more broadly It serves as a tool for the tearing down of our wholly oppressive carceral system the ashes of which we can use to create a better world built on care not cages Congressional Record Index, 1985 Includes history of bills and resolutions Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2002 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 The Incarceration of Native American Women Carma Corcoran, 2023-06 The Incarceration of Native American Women offers academics social workers counselors and those in the criminal justice system a different approach to wellness and recovery while providing a deeper understanding of the cultural and historical experiences of Native Americans in relation to criminology Violence in Psychiatry Katherine D. Warburton, Stephen M.

Stahl,2016-04-28 The association between violence and mental illness is well studied yet remains highly controversial Currently there does appear to be a trend of increasing violence in hospital settings including both civilly and forensically committed populations In fact physical aggression is the primary reason for admission to many hospitals Given that violence is now often both a reason for admission and a barrier to discharge there is a pressing need for violence to be re conceptualized as a primary medical condition not as the by product of one Furthermore treatment settings need to be enhanced to address the new types of violence exhibited in inpatient environments and this modification needs to be geared toward balancing safety with treatment This book focuses on violence from assessment through underlying neurobiology to treatment and other recommendations for practice This will be of interest to forensic psychiatrists general adult psychiatrists psychiatric residents psychologists psychiatric social workers and rehabilitation therapists Corrections Mary K. Stohr,Anthony Walsh,2019-12-10 Written by two academic scholars and former practitioners Corrections From Research to Policy to Practice Second Edition offers students a 21st century look into the treatment and rehabilitative themes that drive modern day corrections Authors Mary K Stohr and Anthony Walsh expertly weave together research policy and practice to give readers a foundational understanding of the field of corrections Readers will gain a comprehensive and practical understanding of corrections as well as exposure to often overlooked topics including correctional programming and treatment special problem solving courts and comparative corrections Prison Librarianship Policy and Practice Suzanna Conrad,2016-11-23 Prisoners are in a grey area regarding library services Prison libraries violate many tenets of librarianship with the justification of maintaining order The field is de professionalized many positions are filled by persons without degrees in library science and corrections administrators often write policy for services Critics cite the need to implement public library service models despite practical difficulties This book investigates state national and international policies on prison libraries reviews literature on the topic and describes partnerships between prisons and public libraries Results from a national survey and follow up interviews are included providing a full narrative of policy outcomes in U S prisons Prison Food in America Erika Camplin,2016-12-08 America seems presently fascinated by prison culture and the inner workings of what happens behind closed doors With TV shows creating binge watchers of us all and celebrities piquing public interest as they end up behind bars Americans seem to enjoy a good gawk at prison life Each year more than 13 million visitors still trek out to Alcatraz Island one of the most famous prisons in the world And why shouldn t they be curious about prison We as a nation currently incarcerate more people per capita than any other country and our prisons are notoriously rough violent and overcrowded At the same time we love our food take pictures of it post it socially and discuss our foodie favorites Rarely do we consider the food experiences of those for whom sustenance is more difficult to obtain particularly those incarcerated where choice and access is severely limited Prison food is often everything to prisoners It is the only marker of time throughout the day Food becomes commerce in the microeconomies behind prison walls It is often the only source of pleasure in a monotonous routine It creates sites of community when prisoners ban together to create recipes but also becomes a site of discord when issues surrounding fairness and equity arise in the chow hall Prison Food in America offers a high level snapshot of the fare offered behind bars its general guidelines and regulations fascinating stories about prisoners and food and the remarkable and varied ways food plays a role in the fabric of prison culture Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board,2016-05 Congressional Record , Nurturing Creativity in the Classroom Ronald A. Beghetto,James C. Kaufman,2016-11-07 As interest in creativity explodes it has become more complicated to decide how to best nurture creativity in our schools There are the controversial Common Core Standards in many states Meanwhile the classroom has become increasingly digital it is easier to access information communicate ideas and learn from people across the world Many countries now include cultivating creativity as a national educational policy recommendation yet there is still debate over best practices Indeed many well intentioned educators may institute programs that may not reach the desired outcome The notion that schools kill creativity has become a widespread social meme We view such beliefs as both hyperbolic and problematic they allow us to recognize there is a problem but not solve it In this book a wide array of international experts addresses these issues discussing theories and research that focus on how to nurture creativity in K 12 and college level classrooms Eliminating the Public Health Problem of Hepatitis B and C in the United States National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Health and Medicine Division,Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice,Committee on a National Strategy for the Elimination of Hepatitis B and C,2016-07-01 Hepatitis B and C cause most cases of hepatitis in the United States and the world The two diseases account for about a million deaths a year and 78 percent of world s hepatocellular carcinoma and more than half of all fatal cirrhosis In 2013 viral hepatitis of which hepatitis B virus HBV and hepatitis C virus HCV are the most common types surpassed HIV and AIDS to become the seventh leading cause of death worldwide The world now has the tools to prevent hepatitis B and cure hepatitis C Perfect vaccination could eradicate HBV but it would take two generations at least In the meantime there is no cure for the millions of people already infected Conversely there is no vaccine for HCV but new direct acting antivirals can cure 95 percent of chronic infections though these drugs are unlikely to reach all chronically infected people anytime soon This report the first of two examines the feasibility of hepatitis B and C elimination in the United States and identifies critical success factors The phase two report will outline a strategy for meeting the elimination goals discussed in this report Rethinking America's Correctional Policies Anne S. Douds,Eileen M. Ahlin,2017-06-02 Commonsense Choices from Uncommon Voices Rethinking America s Correctional Policies brings together the experiences of men who served time in prison with contemporary research on correctional policy This work combines a voyeuristic desire to observe evil and the consequences of the system of punishment with detached consideration of what those stories can tell us about who we are as a nation and how we treat those who have betrayed the social trust The authors simultaneously examine first person accounts of inmate experiences with the correctional system and what actually works in operation to promote the rehabilitative and restorative models of justice so many of our policymakers espouse Each chapter opens with a vignette a recollection of an event or series of events about an inmate s experience during the various phases of correctional processing These first hand accounts have been collected from men who served time in prison These men s stories are examined in their own right then extrapolated to a broader analysis of the underlying social and policy issues to which that vignette speaks All chapters follow the same structure a opening vignette about a former inmate b analysis which includes i identification of the underlying issue ii reflection and iii extrapolation to a larger policy issue and c recommendations from the field for enacting practice and crafting policy more responsive to the identified issue
