Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen, 2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning

Asymmetric Crisis in Europe and Possible Futures Johannes Jäger, Elisabeth Springler, 2015-04-10 The crisis in Europe is often discussed as a crisis of European integration or a crisis of national economies within Europe Both the methodological Europeanism and methodological nationalism miss out the important links between economic and political processes at different spatial scales within Europe and therefore asymmetries and phenomena of uneven development In addition a discussion of possible scenarios which systematically addresses the implications of anti crisis policies is missing This volume seeks to close this gap by systematically integrating the analysis of economic policy or technical solutions to the crisis within a broader framework of political economy It argues that combining critical political economy approaches and post Keynesian perspectives allows for a systematic understanding of the economic and political dimensions of the crisis Although both approaches have the capacity to deal with asymmetries and uneven development the heterogeneity in Europe has been an often largely neglected dimension of analysis However this recent crisis has shown that this is an essential dimension which has to be addressed in order to better understand the dynamics of European development and integration Hence this book aims to deal with asymmetries in Europe and to bridge the gap between the two perspectives This work will initiate an integrative debate that is crucial for a deeper understanding of the current crisis and is an important resource for all students and scholars of IPE European political economy and European politics

Transformative Mission-Oriented Innovation Policies Jakob Edler, Mireille Matt, Wolfgang Polt, Matthias Weber, 2025-05-14 This prescient book offers a unique combination of the conceptualisations of transformative mission oriented science technology and innovation policies including insightful in depth empirical studies covering a wide range of countries to explore how these policies are designed enacted and analysed      Beneath the Lines Jacobo García-Álvarez, Paloma Puente-Lozano, 2022-05-03 This book brings together ten empirically rich and theoretically informed contributions that aim to clarify both geo historical specificities and common transnational and global features of the cultures and practices of boundary making that shaped modern statehood Written by scholars from Spain France Italy Argentina Brazil and Mexico the essays included in this volume provide a comparative international perspective on the processes of border formation as well as an integrative approach that seeks to strengthen the links between renewed geo historical studies and more contemporary oriented border studies The book is addressed to a wide range of researchers including geographers historians political scientists and specialists in geopolitics and the history of international relations      The Politics of Refugee Policy in the Global South Ola G. El-Taliawi, 2024-06-15 Mass refugee movements represent a complex policy problem to host governments as they challenge existing socio economic and political structures While scholarship on refugee migration tends to centre on the Global North most refugees actually reside in the Global South where the capacity to provide assistance is limited Shifting the focus from sensationalist rhetoric about mass migration to the North The Politics of Refugee Policy in the Global South provides a comparative analysis of Lebanon s and Jordan s responses to the Syrian refugee movement one of the largest displacements in modern history Through extensive interviews and process tracing Ola El Taliawi uncovers the complex realities of refugee hosting and the hard choices governments make in light of this challenge Building on the concept of complexity El Taliawi employs a unique methodology and analytical approach painting a nuanced picture of asylum provision and identifying a spectrum of refugee hosting models More than ever we need a better understanding of the unique politics of refugee policymaking in the Global South This incisive book offers key insights for effective governance and reform of the global refugee regime      Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1973
