Enterprise and Social Rights Adalberto Perulli, Tiziano Treu, 2017-06-15 Globalization has led to growing labour fragmentation and widening of gaps in social protection Although the enterprise is increasingly expected to be socially responsible in actuality extreme worker inequalities and social dumping have become ubiquitous worldwide This volume the first to focus attention on the theory of the firm as it reveals itself in today's world from a multidisciplinary perspective underscores the necessity to rebuild a new scientifically controlled paradigm that acknowledges and regulates the dimension of power in the functioning of the organization In their contributed essays nineteen renowned scholars in labour law and industrial relations rethink the firm its conception its value and its regulation analysing such aspects as the following labour management relations issues that arise when companies go global but workers remain local the firm as a social construction the continuing necessity for collective bargaining concealment of the employment relationship under the guise of self employment concealment of the real employer behind figureheads and shell companies social welfare effects of outsourcing the company's interaction with the network of suppliers and with local education processes determining who actually carries responsibility towards workers overcoming companies drive to enter the global market in response to national regulation realizing the notion of duty of care mechanisms of participation of workers in the management of the enterprise and the persistent limitations that women face in the workplace even when worker

participation is advocated With attention to innovative developments in Germany Italy Japan and other countries analyses include case studies of specific companies as well as case law in particular the European Court of Justice s jurisprudence in matters of collective dismissals seconded workers and public contracts In their head on tackling of the fragmentation and blurring of social responsibility in enterprise organization these important essays propose a view of the enterprise as a factor in a new constitutionalisation of labour that shifts employment protection from single legal entities to the network s economic activity thus realigning the legal boundaries of the enterprise with its economic reality As a compelling investigation of how a satisfactory implementation of labour standards in the fragmented enterprise can be guaranteed this book will be studied by entrepreneurs managers consultants corporate lawyers judges human rights experts and trade unionists and will be welcomed by academics and researchers in industrial relations and labour law Cash Not Care Mo Stewart,2016-09-14 Mo Stewart is a former healthcare professional a disabled female veteran and an independent researcher This book is the culmination of six years of self funded research and the evidence exposes the influence of corporate America since 1992 with the future welfare reforms of the UK The impact of the enforced austerity measures of the UK government is identified as they negatively affect the welfare and the survival of the chronically sick and disabled population in receipt of welfare benefits when unfit to work The research has informed welfare reform debates in the House of Lords and the House of Commons since 2011 and contributed to the evidence used by the United Nations to investigate the UK government for breaches of the Human Rights of sick and disabled people Endorsed by the disabled community and by academics the research has identified the adoption of lethal social policies copied from American social security policies and linked to the death of thousands of the most vulnerable of all as the UK welfare state is systematically demolished as all planned over thirty years ago by a previous Conservative government The War Lawyers Craig Jones,2020 Over the last 20 years the world s most advanced militaries have invited a small number of military legal professionals into the heart of their targeting operations spaces which had previously been exclusively for generals and commanders These professionals trained and hired to give legal advice on an array of military operations have become known as war lawyers The War Lawyers examines the laws of war as applied by military lawyers to aerial targeting operations carried out by the US military in Iraq and Afghanistan and the Israel military in Gaza Drawing on interviews with military lawyers and others this book explains why some lawyers became integrated in the chain of command whereby military targets are identified and attacked whether by manned aircraft drones and or ground forces and with what results This book shows just how important law and military lawyers have become in the conduct of contemporary warfare and how it is understood Jones argues that circulations of law and policy between the US and Israel have bolstered targeting practices considered legally questionable contending that the involvement of war lawyers in targeting operations enables legitimises and sometimes even extends military violence

Deepening Neoliberalism, Austerity, and Crisis Julien Mercille,Enda Murphy,2015-07-07 From bank bailouts to austerity

Europe's and Ireland's response to the economic crisis has been engineered specifically to shift the burden of paying for the crisis onto ordinary citizens while investors financiers bankers and the privileged are protected The authors expose the class based nature of Ireland's crisis resolution

The Drone Memos Jameel Jaffer, 2010-01-12 A trenchant summation and analysis of the legal rationales behind the US drone policy of targeted killing of suspected terrorists including US citizens Publishers Weekly starred review In the long response to 9 11 the US government initiated a deeply controversial policy of targeted killing the extrajudicial execution of suspected terrorists and militants typically via drones A remarkable effort was made to legitimize this practice one that most human rights experts agree is illegal and that the United States has historically condemned In The Drone Memos civil rights lawyer Jameel Jaffer presents and assesses the legal memos and policy documents that enabled the Obama administration to put this program into action In a lucid and provocative introduction Jaffer who led the ACLU legal team that secured the release of many of the documents evaluates the drone memos in light of domestic and international law He connects the documents legal abstractions to the real world violence they allow and makes the case that we are trading core principles of democracy and human rights for the illusion of security A careful study of a secretive counterterrorism infrastructure capable of sustaining endless orderless war this book is profoundly necessary

Educational Reconstruction Gary McCulloch, 2013-09-05 This book presents a clear overview of the debates that surrounded the making of the 1944 Act which affected every aspect of education in this country It gives a detailed account of the tripartite divisions into three types of child that were sanctioned in the reforms of the 1940s At the same time it also emphasises the idea of education as a civic project which underlay the reforms and which was such an important part of their lasting authority The education policies of the past decade and the current attempts to shape a new education settlement need to be interpreted in a long term historical framework and in particular in relation to the aims and problems of the last great cycle of reform in the 1940s This book makes an important contribution to the development of such a framework and the social history of education policy in this country Global Justice & Finance Tim

Hayward,2019-08-01 Can global justice be promoted by distributing money more equitably Could even relatively small financial sacrifices by the affluent work through benign leverage to achieve that goal Global Justice and Finance casts new light on such questions by considering what is presupposed about finance Redistributive proposals assume money to be a reliable measure store of value and medium of exchange Yet maintaining stable interest inflation and exchange rates in a dynamic capitalist economy is a considerable achievement involving a complex financial system Such global coordination could if so directed contribute immensely to humanity s betterment yet under the direction of a profit seeking elite it leaves a majority disempowered impoverished and indebted To pay debts ever more desperate measures to wrest value from the world s natural resources increase ecological pressures to harmful extremes and those pressures do not stop short of driving wars The profit seeking economy is held in place by the complex legal arrangements that constitute finance Globally there has developed unannounced and unaccountably what amounts to a privatised constitution binding agreements that transcend sovereign jurisdictions Hopes of redirecting the financial assets created within this system by means of modest reforms towards objectives of social justice and ecological sustainability may prove illusory To achieve such objectives arguably requires the constitution of a global normative order guided by public and political decision making The achievement of a publicly accountable constitutional order that is superordinate to the financial system might be regarded as a revolutionary transformation Title Announcement Bulletin ,1956 America's Moment: Creating Opportunity in the Connected Age

Rework America,2015-06-15 It is time for a new conversation Amid the biggest economic transformation in a century the challenge of our time is to make sure that all Americans benefit from the wave of digital revolutions around the world that have permeated and upended modern life Yet today s economic arguments seem stuck We need a new vision of a hopeful future and a new action agenda So many Americans are uncertain about the future How can there be so many paths to opportunity with so few people traveling them As a nation we have to understand what is required to help Americans succeed now and how to prepare our country for what comes next We have been here before A hundred years ago America experienced the greatest economic transformation and technological revolution in its history The transformation of the past twenty years as the world has moved through the information era into the digital age has turned our life and work upside down once again It is a time of tremendous change but also of tremendous possibility Rework America is a group of American leaders who know from experience the challenges we face and the potential solutions In America's Moment they suggest a practical agenda for an exciting future It is illustrated by people who are already showing the way and includes actions Americans can take today in their own communities preparing people to succeed using the reach of the Internet and data to innovate jobs and to reach new markets all over the world using technology to match employers and workers and transitioning to a no collar working world neither blue collar nor white collar Set against the history of how Americans succeeded once before in remaking their country America's Moment is about the future It describes how the same forces of change technology and a networked world can become tools that can open opportunity to everyone Brexit and After Kumiko Haba, Martin Holland, 2020-12-12 This book makes a new departure from others on the subject Not only does it analyze Brexit from the domestic point of view in the UK democracy social analysis and construction of new institutionalization with the EU it extends the analysis externally and reconsiders the EU and UK relationship with Asia and the implications for international relations and a new world order From this foundation this book presents a broad and diverse spectrum of views concerning Brexit and the EU For these reasons it serves as an original and excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate students as well as for researchers of the EU and international relations Contributions to this volume are from the European Union Studies Association EUSA Asia Pacific Tokyo Conference and affiliated conferences at the following universities between 2017-19 Aoyama Gakuin University Tokyo Taiwan National University Taipei and Fudan University Shanghai Almost all of the authors have engaged in interdisciplinary research on the EU are members of the EUSA Asia Pacific and have made public presentations on Brexit and how it relates to the EU Asia international relations economics and institutions Therefore this book presents various aspects of Brexit and its aftermath from the perspectives of the disciplines of political science economics and international relations in its analysis of the UK the EU Asia and the future world order The EUSA Presidents and executive committee members participated in the Asia Pacific Conference postgraduate student workshops were organized and their presentations moderated thereby guaranteeing both the quality of the contributions to this book as well as encouraging young talented scholars to write about Brexit and the EU While many books on Brexit have been published this book offers many new and perspectives that provide suggestions for possible solutions to the problems facing the UK and the EU after Brexit Cyberwarfare Mike Chapple, David Seidl, 2014-07-31 This book reviews the role that cyberwarfare plays in modern military operations operations in which it has become almost impossible to separate cyberwarfare from traditional warfare Key features include incorporation of hands on activities relevant examples and realistic exercises to prepare readers for their future careers examination of the importance of information as a military asset from the days of Sun Tzu and Julius Caesar to the present discussion of cyberwarfare in light of the law of war and international conventions and the new questions it is raising a review of the various methods of attack used in recent years by both nation state and nonstate actors outlines of strategies for defending endpoints networks and data offering of predictions on the future of cyberwarfare and its interaction with military doctrine provision of fresh capabilities due to information drawn from the Snowden NSA leaks Pan-Islamic Connections Christophe Jaffrelot, Laurence Louer, 2018-01-15 South Asia is today the region inhabited by the largest number of Muslims roughly 500 million In the course of the Islamisation process which began in the eighth century it developed a distinct Indo Islamic civilisation that culminated in the Mughal Empire While paying lip service to the power centres of Islam in the Gulf including Mecca and Medina this civilisation has cultivated its own variety of Islam based on Sufism Over the last fifty years pan Islamic ties have intensified between these two regions Gathering together some of the best specialists on the subject this volume explores these ideological educational and spiritual networks which have gained momentum due to political strategies migration flows and increased communications At stake are both the resilience of the civilisation that imbued South Asia with a specific identity and the relations between Sunnis and Shias in a region where Saudi Arabia and Iran are fighting a cultural proxy war as evident in the foreign ramifications of sectarianism in Pakistan Pan Islamic Connections investigates the nature and implications of the cultural spiritual and socio economic rapprochement between these two Islams A Global Idea Mayssoun Sukarieh, 2023-08-15 A Global Idea outlines how youth as shown by the Arab Spring uprisings and subsequent state responses became a prominent social and political category during the first two decades of the twenty first century in the Middle East Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork interview data and textual analysis Mayssoun Sukarieh explains that the spread of youth as an important category is linked to the operation of a global youth development complex a diverse transnational network of state private sector civil society and international development aid organizations that worked through key urban areas such as Washington DC Amman and Dubai In its analysis of the arrival extension and embedding of the youth development complex in the Middle East during this period A Global Idea addresses a broader question that is of global and not just regional concern How are certain ideas that are central to the working and reproduction of global capitalism able to travel the world so that they are found virtually everywhere Innovation and Modernisation in Contemporary Russia Imogen Sophie Kristin Wade, 2022-07-29 This book examines how technological modernisation and innovation policies have been implemented in Russia from the Soviet era to the present day It discusses how since about 2000 the Russian state has attempted to address the country's excessive dependence on natural resources by implementing an ambitious programme of economic modernisation including giving innovation more policy prominence boosting state funding for research and development and innovation and emphasising science towns and technology parks as key instruments for stimulating innovation Based on extensive original research taking a multidisciplinary approach and including detailed case studies the book explains why despite these efforts Russia is performing comparatively poorly in innovation outcomes It argues that a key factor is the country's political economy model in which science technology and innovation policies are mainly controlled and funded by the federal centre of power and led by domestic political and economic elites The Evolution of Economic Development in Africa Francis K. Mbroh, 2021-07-11 Within the theoretical framework of the trade growth and structural transformation growth nexuses the book examines the evolution of African goods and service trade in terms of value and share of global commerce relative to other regions during the period 1948 2017 It also identifies and discusses discernible changes in the composition and structure of African exports and imports between 1995 and 2015 and their implications for economic development in Africa The study attributes Africa's laggard trade performance during the period primarily to sub optimal macroeconomic policies and lack of bold export development policies and initiatives among other factors It also offers an incisive discussion of several inhibitions to the structural transformation of African exports and imports including lack of finance globalization tariff and non tariff measures in global markets The discussion of the evolution of African trade during the period 1948 2017 based on statistics and publications of international organizations including the UNCTAD the World Bank and the African Development Bank among others is the first of its kind in terms of scope and depth of review of African trade The analyses of cross border trade during 1948 2017 and their implications for Africa's economic development prospects constitute a useful reference material for academics and students of African and development studies and African and international policymakers Kosovo and Serbia Leandrit I. Mehmeti, Branislav Radeljic, 2017-06-17 Azan on the Moon is an in depth anthropological study of people's lives along the Pamir Highway in eastern Tajikistan Constructed in the 1930s in rugged high altitude terrain the road fundamentally altered the material and social fabric of this former Soviet outpost on the border with Afghanistan and China The highway initially brought sentiments of disconnection and hardship followed by Soviet modernization and development and ultimately a sense of distinction from bordering countries and urban centers that continues to this day Based on extensive fieldwork and through an analysis of construction mobility technology media development Islam and the state Till Mostowlansky shows how ideas of modernity are both challenged and reinforced in contemporary Tajikistan In the wake of China's rise in Central Asia people along the Pamir Highway strive to reconcile a modern future with a modern past Weaving together the road a population and a region Azan on the Moon presents a rich ethnography of global connections
