A Geography of Jihad Stephanie Zehnle, 2020-01-20 This book addresses the Jihad movement that created the largest African state of the 19th century the Sokoto Caliphate existing for 99 years from 1804 until its military defeat by European colonial troops in 1903 The author carves out the entanglements of jihadist ideology and warfare with geographical concepts at Africa's periphery of the Islamic world geographical knowledge about the boundary between the Land of Islam and the Land of War the pre colonial construction of the Muslim and the unbeliever and the transfer of ideas between political elites and mobile actors traders pilgrims slaves soldiers whose reports helped shape new definitions of the African frontier of Islam Research for this book is based on the study of a very wide range of Arabic and West African Hausa Fulfulde manuscripts Their policies reveal the persistent reciprocity of jihadist warfare and territorial statehood of Africa and the Middle East Stephanie Zehnle is Assistant Professor JProf of Extra European History at Kiel University Christian Albrechts Universität Her work on African and trans continental history includes research on the history of Islam human animal relations and comics in Africa The Legality and Accountability of Autonomous Weapon Systems Afonso Seixas-Nunes, 2022-05-19 A comprehensive definition of autonomous weapons systems and their operation and what happens when they cause violations of international law Land Fictions D. Asher Ghertner, Robert W. Lake, 2021-03-15 Land Fictions explores the common storylines narratives and tales of social betterment that justify and enact land as commodity It interrogates global patterns of property formation the dispossessions property markets enact and the popular movements to halt the growing waves of evictions and land grabs This collection brings together original research on urban rural and peri urban India rapidly urbanizing China and Southeast Asia resource expropriation in Africa and Latin America and the neoliberal urban landscapes of North America and Europe Through a variety of perspectives Land Fictions finds resonances between local stories of land's fictional powers and global visions of landed property's imagined power to automatically create value and advance national development Editors D Asher Ghertner and Robert W Lake unpack the dynamics of land commodification across a broad range of political spatial and temporal settings exposing its simultaneously contingent and collective nature The essays advance understanding of the politics of land while also contributing to current debates on the intersections of local and global urban and rural and general and particular Contributors Erik Harms Michael Watts Sai Balakrishnan Brett Christophers David Ferring Sarah Knuth Meghan Morris Benjamin Teresa Mi Shih Michael Levien Michael L Dwyer Heather Whiteside The Urban Political Theresa Enright, Ugo Rossi, 2017-11-01 This book examines the political and economic trajectories of cities following the 2008 financial crisis The authors claim that in this era which they dub late neoliberalism urban spaces institutions subjectivities and organizational forms are undergoing processes of radical transformation and recomposition The volume deftly argues that the urban political horizon of late neoliberalism is ambivalent marked by many progressive mobilizations for equality and justice but also by regressive forces of austerity exploitation and domination

Taken for a Ride Matteo Rizzo, 2017 How does public transport work in an African city under neoliberalism Who owns what in it Who has the power to influence its shape and changes in it over time What does it mean to be a precarious and informal worker in the private minibuses that provide public transport in Dar es Salaam These are the main questions that inform this in depth case study of Dar es Salaam's public transport system over more than forty years The growth of cities and informal economies are two central manifestations of globalization in the developing world Taken for a Ride addresses both drawing on long term fieldwork in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and charting its public transport system's journey from public to private provision This new addition to the Critical Frontiers of Theory Research and Practice in International Development Studies series investigates this shift alongside the increasing deregulation of the sector and the resulting chaotic modality of public transport It reviews state attempts to regain control over public transport and documents how informal wage relations prevailed in the sector The changing political attitude of workers towards employers and the state is investigated from an initial incapacity to respond to exploitation to the political organisation and unionisation which won workers concessions on labour rights A longitudinal study of workers throws light on patterns of occupational mobility in the sector The book ends with an analysis of the political and economic interests that shaped the introduction of Bus Rapid Transit in Dar es Salaam and local resistance to it Taken for a Ride is an interdisciplinary political economy of public transport exposing the limitations of market fundamentalist and postcolonial approaches to the study of economic informality the urban experience in developing countries and their failure to locate the agency of the urban poor within their economic and political structures It is both a contribution to and a call for the contextualised study of neoliberalism

YEAR-WISE CTET Paper 2 (Social Science/ Studies) Solved Papers (2011 - 2020) - 3rd English Edition Disha Experts, 2020-04-06      An Introduction to Place-Based Development Economics and Policy Gilberto Seravalli, 2015-02-11 This book introduces the reader to local development economics and policy with a special focus on the place based paradigm that covers its justification its difficulties and the types of public intervention that it suggests The starting point for the analysis is that economic development in lagging places is not to be expected as the result of a mechanism of automatic convergence between backward and advanced regions and that therefore the most appropriate development policy is not to maximize competition among all agents in all sectors and places The failure of the Washington Consensus is examined and the two competing positions to have emerged from this failure spatially blind interventions and place based policies are contrasted The main shortcoming of spatially blind policies namely that immobile resources that could trigger or support a development process often remain untapped or trapped is emphasized The limitations of the big push state intervention and wage flexibility solutions to this trap are analyzed and the merits of place based policies that support intervention and can deal with uncertainty risk and conflict are discussed

Washington at the Plow Bruce A. Ragsdale,2021-10-12 George

Washington spent most of his time farming often employing experimental methods Washington saw slave powered scientific agriculture as the key to the nation's prosperity Bruce Ragsdale argues that it was slave labor's inefficiency as much as its inhumanity that finally convinced Washington to emancipate the men and women bonded to him

12 YEAR-WISE CTET Paper 2 (Social Science/ Studies) Solved Papers (2011 - 2019) - 2nd English Edition Disha Experts,2019-09-06

The Populist Temptation Barry Eichengreen,2018-05-03 Populism of the right and left has spread like wildfire throughout the world The impulse reached its apogee in the United States with the election of Trump but it was a force in Europe ever since the Great Recession sent the European economy into a prolonged tailspin In the simplest terms populism is a political ideology that vilifies economic and political elites and instead lionizes the people The people populists of all stripes contend need to retake power from the unaccountable elites who have left them powerless And typically populists distrust of elites shades into a catchall distrust of trained experts because of their perceived distance from and contempt for the people Another signature element of populist movements is faith in a savior who can not only speak directly to the people but also serve as a vessel for the plain people's hopes and dreams Going back to the 1890s a series of such saviors have come and gone in the US alone from William Jennings Bryan to Huey Long to finally Donald Trump In The Populist Temptation the eminent economic historian Barry Eichengreen focuses on the global resurgence of populism today and places it in a deep context Alternating between the present and earlier populist waves from modern history he argues that populists tend to thrive most in the wake of economic downturns when it is easy to convince the masses of elite malfeasance Yet while there is more than a grain of truth that bankers financiers and bought politicians are responsible for the mess populists own solutions tend to be simplistic and economically counterproductive Moreover by arguing that the ordinary people are at the mercy of extra national forces beyond their control international capital immigrants cosmopolitan globalists populists often degenerate into demagoguery and xenophobia There is no one solution to addressing the concerns that populists raise but Eichengreen argues that there is an obvious place to start shoring up and improving the welfare state so that it is better able to act as a buffer for those who suffer most during economic slumps For example America s patchwork welfare state was not well equipped to deal with the economic fallout that attended globalization and the decline of manufacturing in America and that played no small part in Trump s victory Lucidly explaining both the appeals and dangers of populism across history this book is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand not just the populist phenomenon but more generally the lasting political fallout that follows in the wake of major economic crises
