

Lesson 2-2 Guided Reading Activity

Review Questions

Directions: Read each main idea, answer the questions or respond to the statements below. Refer to your textbook as you write the answers.

A. Main Idea: Even though there are several different kinds of economies, there are more mixed economies— economic systems where tradition, government, and markets each answer some of the WHAT, HOW, and FOR WHOM questions—than any other kind.

1. What factors can lead to the development of mixed economies? What led to the development of U.S. government economic programs in the 1920s and 1930s?
2. Who owns most of the resources in a market or capitalistic economy? In a socialist or command economy? What determines ownership in a traditional economy?
3. Are most economies purely capitalistic, purely command, purely traditional, or mixed? Of the economies that are mixed, what is the most dominate type of mixed economy?

Review Questions

Directions: Read each main idea, answer the questions or respond to the statements below. Refer to your textbook as you write the answers.

B. Main Idea: Mixed economies usually share characteristics with all three economic systems— market, socialistic, and traditional.

4. Define communism. What is the difference between communism and a command economy?
5. Are there any true communist economies today? Which economies call themselves communist, and what are they actually, if not communist?
6. Describe the reason Sweden is no longer considered a socialist country. When did it change, and what is its economy today?
7. Name some other mixed-market economies.
8. Is the United States a purely market capitalist economy? Why or why not?

Review Questions

Directions: Read each main idea, answer the questions or respond to the statements below. Refer to your textbook as you write the answers.

C. Main Idea: Mixed economies offer both benefits and disadvantages to members of society.

9. Why are former socialist and command economies, like those of China, Cuba, and Russia, adopting more free-market practices?

Promoting Local Economic Development through Strategic Planning: Vol 5 Trainer's Guide , Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1922 Japanese War Crimes and Related Topics: A Guide to Records at the National Archives United States. National Archives and Records Administration,200? This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U S National Archives and Records Administration at College Park NARA It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence political diplomatic economic financial social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931 1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war the organization functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 P L 106 567 as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act Because the process of identifying declassifying accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding is being compiled late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up to date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA s custody While this finding aid s coverage is broad it is not comprehensive Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest In addition the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid This is particularly true of the Franklin D Roosevelt the Harry S Truman and the Dwight D Think of archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions Explorations on familiar well trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and imagination
