Question 1

(Do not spend more than 35 minutes on this question.)

[25]

Write a composition (350-400 words) on any one of the following:-

- Write an original short story that begins with words: "In the background I could hear an awful commotion, men's voices raised and woman screaming."
- 'Boarding schools are far better than day schools for the all-round education of a child'. Express your view either for or against this statement.
- You were on a school trip and were on your way back to the hotel late one night when your school bus, full of children, broke down in a lonely area. Describe what you saw and experienced as you looked around. How was the problem solved?
- Teaching someone else how to do something can be a rewarding experience. Think of a skill that you have helped someone to develop. Perhaps you taught someone how to swim or to bake a cake or helped someone learn how to study more effectively. Narrate the events that made up the process of teaching the skill, and say what made the experience important and memorable for you.
- Study the picture given below. Write a story or a description or an account of what it suggests to you. Your composition may be about the subject of the picture or you may take suggestions from it; however there must be a clear connection between the picture and your composition.
