

Max walked through the dark woods, his eyes darting in all directions. Each time he snapped a twig with his foot or heard an owl hoot in the distance, Max gave a little jump and walked a little faster. He clutched the flashlight in his hand tightly.

"Where is this thing?" Max muttered to himself as he swung his flashlight around, the beam illuminating bushes, trees, and rocks.

Finally, after what felt like an eternity, Max saw it. Hanging off a branch by one red strap, the zipper wide open and the contents spilled everywhere. Max muttered under his breath, angry with his brother Teddy's carelessness. There were containers of food that could easily attract animals, a pair of binoculars that had probably gotten cracked, and Teddy's water bottle, which was filthy and had spilled everywhere. Max continued to mutter as he stuffed the contents back in and slung the red strap over his shoulder.

Just then, Max heard a loud, crashing sound moving through the nearby bushes. He screamed, turned, and ran as fast as he could back to the trail. "What is that?" he thought frantically as he ran, his flashlight trained on the ground to avoid tripping on a rock or tree root. Only when he saw his mom, dad, and Teddy sitting happily around a fire did he stop, confident that whatever he had heard was not following him.
