Faith Book 1 Of Crossroads And Canines:

Crossroads Julia S. Dane, 2017-12-05 The author identifies aspects of her belief system as depicted through the life of the main character of this story Rebekah Julia has no doubt that all people have value and the ability to contribute in some form to the betterment of the human condition People bring this reality to life in varying degrees depending not only on their choices but on the choices made by the influencers in our lives The experiences discussed in this book demonstrate how people can continue to repeat patterns when left to their own accord rather than choosing to rely on God and the wisdom imparted through the teachings of Jesus Christ The experiences shared from Rebekah's life brings evidence of what can happen when people rely on their own merit and efforts void of godly wisdom We as human beings will continue to fail in one way or another to do right if left to our own design We all could use some guidance and can benefit from that shared by others yet Rebekah's life experiences provide clear evidence that not all advice is God breathed The author exemplifies through Rebekah's colorful life experiences that it is never too late in life to even have a faith like a mustard seed to start trusting in the basic instructions of life that are found in the pages of the Holy Bible As long as we have breath in us Julia believes it is never too late to make new choices that can change the course of one's life Each day we all have new choices to make new words to speak and new actions to take What will yours be

Mormon Women at the Crossroads Caroline Kline, 2022-06-28 Winner of the Mormon History Association Best International Book Award The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints continues to contend with longstanding tensions surrounding gender and race Yet women of color in the United States and across the Global South adopt and adapt the faith to their contexts many sharing the high level of satisfaction expressed by Latter day Saints in general Caroline Kline explores the ways Latter day Saint women of color in Mexico Botswana and the United States navigate gender norms but also how their moral priorities and actions challenge Western feminist assumptions Kline analyzes these traditional religious women through non oppressive connectedness a worldview that blends elements of female empowerment and liberation with a broader focus on fostering positive and productive relationships in different realms Even as members of a patriarchal institution the women feel a sense of liberation that empowers them to work against oppression and against alienation from both God and other human beings Vivid and groundbreaking Mormon Women at the Crossroads merges interviews with theory to offer a rare discussion of Latter day Saint women from a global perspective
