OBJECTIVES: Use the information in your textbooks to complete the diagrams.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE SYSTEM

In 1788	In 1808	Today
Each state elects electors equal in the number of senators and representatives. The Electoral College meets to elect the president in their state capital. The electors with the most votes become president and the next state elects electors to elect the president.	The 12th Amendment requires electors to cast separate ballots for president and vice president. It also requires electors to cast ballots for one person.	Presidents are elected by electors. The president and vice president, both for all states, serve 4 years in office. The Electoral College meets to elect the president and vice president. The electors with the most votes become president and vice president.

OBJECTIVES: Use the information in your textbooks to complete the diagrams.
