World Yearbook of Education 1969 Joseph A. Lauwerys, David G. Scanlon, 2013-10-28 First Published in 2005 Almost everywhere policies designed to broaden access to education and to promote equality of opportunity are now pursued In consequence the importance of examinations grows since success in them determines entry to higher education and thus to professional posts They are therefore a major instrument of social mobility and promotion which affects social structure by applying criteria of selection nearly always accepted unconsciously and uncritically The aim of this text in selecting Examinations as the theme of the 1969 WORLD YEAR BOOK was to present a comparative analysis of the way in which examinations are devised administered and assessed to find out why we are examining and to look at the ways in which we examine to see if these are efficient relevant and reliable

Research, Policy and Practice John Nisbet, Jacquetta Megarry, Stanley Nisbet, 1985 Student Learning in Higher Education John Wilson, 2018-10-11 Originally published in 1981 Student Learning in Higher Education fills an important gap by bringing together in a concise and readable form research from Britain the USA and elsewhere and by discussing the curricular implications for staff who wish to assist their students to see meaning in their studies It focuses on issues of general relevance explores major research questions and outlines different methodologies and approaches It discusses what is meant by meaningful learning and describes typical learning tasks encountered by arts and science students It looks at how students decide what to study on a course and how assessment demands shape both their perceptions of what should be learned and their study behaviour As well as considering the ways in which students change and develop over their years in college the book also discusses the relative importance of teaching and informal influences such as the student peer group This book attempts to provide a state of the art review of the literature in a field of central concern for all who prepare students for or work within higher education
