Jacobs,2021-09-20 This handbook reviews efforts to increase the use of empirical methods in studies of the aesthetic and social effects of literary reading The reviewed research is expansive including extension of familiar theoretical models to novel domains e g educational settings enlarging empirical efforts within under represented research areas e g child development and broadening the range of applicable quantitative and qualitative methods e g computational stylistics

phenomenological methods Especially challenging is articulation of the subtle aesthetic and social effects of literary artefacts e g poetry film Increasingly the complexity of these effects is addressed in multi variate studies including confirmatory factor analysis and structural equation modeling While each chapter touches upon the historical background of a specific research topic two chapters address the area s historical background and guiding philosophical assumptions Taken together the material in this volume provides a systematic introduction to the area for early career professionals while challenging active researchers to develop theoretical frameworks and empirical procedures that match the complexity of their research objectives

Multicultural Literature and Literacies Suzanne Miale Miller,Suzanne M. Miller,Barbara McCaskill,1993-01-01 Does literature serve a humanizing function Can it achieve social transformation What roles does literature play for defining self creating community and achieving global perspective This is the first book to thoroughly explore the methods by which educators creative writers and policymakers have constructed workable models of teaching literature in multicultural classrooms The authors provide an interdisciplinary dialogue on the setbacks solutions silences and successes that often occur in classes of multicultural literature They all take the stance that definitions of literacy and literature originate as much outside the classroom as within it With the inclusion of essays by writers themselves a feature provided by no other book on this subject the authors offer a unique vocalization of the nationalistic economic empowering and moral purposes that reading and writing serve The book also includes a current guide to selected resources in multicultural literature in hopes of encouraging and facilitating instructors in the transformation of their own literature courses into multicultural ones

Navigating the New Pedagogy Jeff Halstead, 2011-06-16 In the early 21st Century a new vision for classroom practice emerged that looks very different from the teaching that existed previously. This new teaching is a synthesis of effective curriculum, big ideas, nurturing relationships, differentiated instruction, appropriate assessment, teaching to standards, use of technology, and solid understanding of the content being taught. Six core principles emerge from the new educational theory that have the power to define and organize this new vision for classroom practice and to transform teaching itself. Navigating the New Pedagogy: Six Principles that Transform Teaching provides this vital map of education's new landscape of the current best practices and philosophies. Teachers, administrators, and education professors will find ideas that will help transform classrooms into positive, productive learning environments.

Culture and Identity Anita Jones Thomas, Sara E. Schwarzbaum, 2016-09-08 Culture and Identity by Anita Jones Thomas and Sara E. Schwarzbaum engages students with autobiographical stories that show the intersections of culture as part of identity formation. The easy-to-read stories centered on such themes as race, ethnicity, gender, class, religion, sexual orientation, and disability tell the real-life struggles with identity development, life events, family relationships, and family history. The Third Edition includes an expanded framework model that encompasses racial socialization, oppression, and resilience. New discussions of timely topics include race and gender intersectionality, microaggressions, enculturation, cultural homelessness, risk of journey, spirituality, and wellness, and APA guidelines for working with transgendered individuals.

Teaching English in Middle and Secondary Schools Rhoda J. Maxwell, Mary Jordan Meiser, 2005 With continuing attention to constructivist theory and reflective practice, this book offers a comprehensive, realistic, integrated approach to teaching English language arts to middle and secondary school learners. In this fourth edition, content has undergone major reorganization, and chapters have been significantly rearranged. Individual chapters on specific language arts are linked through a common focus on the reality of the language arts classroom, the responsibilities of the language arts teacher, and the means to meet these responsibilities through thoughtful, reflective, holistic teaching. For current and pre-service middle and secondary school English teachers.
