The text

1. In 2017, Jodi Wilson's lifestyle had become unsustainable. She and her partner Daniel had just had their fourth child and were about to put down a deposit on a Sydney home. The pressure on the family was mounting. With Daniel commuting 2.5 hours to his media job every day, Jodi, a freelance writer, was juggling work, a new baby, and all the housework alone.

2. As the situation was about to become more entrenched, Jodi came to the realisation that the family needed to take a leap of faith. So they did — and it completely changed the course of their lives. Daniel suggested the family take a one-year road trip around Australia. Even though Jodi was averse to spontaneous adventures, she just said "yes".

3. The couple used much of their house deposit to buy a $30,000 caravan and $50,000 four-wheel drive. Meanwhile, Jodi was questioning their decision almost daily. "There were so many reasons why we shouldn't do it," she says. Pulling the kids out of school was one.

4. Finally, in winter of 2018, with about $20,000 left in the bank, Jodi and her family drove their caravan out of the driveway of their suburban Sydney rental and hit the road. The plan was to spend a couple of hours driving, then stay put at a caravan park for five to seven days. They'd live frugally — it wasn't a holiday — and would pick up extra cash along the way from Jodi's freelance work. Days were filled with some school work as the older children studied distance education, hours at the beach, exploring creeks and making new caravan park friends.
