come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention The Rise and Fall of Civic Education Michael Learn,2024-09-16 Social studies is a field in crisis The crisis stems from failure to establish the very foundation of social studies purpose in public education civic education Social studies advocates have never put forth a coherent method for teaching civic education because policymakers and the public have been unable to agree upon a general definition of civic education This issue has disrupted the field since the early days As educators sought to include civic education within public schools as a dedicated field social studies evolved into a blending of history social sciences and civic education Social studies evolution never resolved the differences between the three with each discipline striving to control the narrative Instead of creating a unified field the disciplines devalued social studies and thus any discipline associated with it The Rise and Fall of Civic Education The Battle for Social Studies in a Shifting Historical Landscape investigates the changing definitions and purposes ascribed to social studies in the United States through time This result is viewed through the rising tensions from culture wars as America's divisive politics fight to control the narrative of the disciplines within social studies Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy,2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies

Peacebuilding and Friction Annika Björkdahl,Kristine Höglund,Gearoid Millar,Jair van der Lijn,Willemijn Verkoren,2016-03-02 This book aims to understand the processes and outcomes that arise from frictional encounters in peacebuilding when global and local forces meet Building a sustainable peace after violent conflict is a process that entails competing ideas political contestation and transformation of power relations This volume develops the concept of friction to better analyse the interplay between global ideas actors and practices and their local counterparts The chapters examine efforts undertaken to promote sustainable peace in a variety of locations such as Cambodia Sri Lanka Afghanistan and Sierra Leone These case analyses provide a nuanced understanding not simply of local processes or of the hybrid or mixed agencies ideas and processes that are generated but of the complex interactions that unfold between all of these elements in the context of peacebuilding intervention The analyses demonstrate how the ambivalent relationship between global and local actors leads to unintended and sometimes counterproductive results of peacebuilding interventions The approach of this book with its focus on friction as a conceptual tool advances the peacebuilding research agenda and adds to two ongoing debates in the peacebuilding field the debate on hybridity and the debate on local agency and local ownership In analysing frictional encounters this volume prepares the ground for a better understanding of the mixed impact peace initiatives have on post conflict societies This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution security studies and international relations in general
