Enos,2017 The Space Between Us brings the connection between geography psychology and politics to life By going into the neighborhoods of real cities Enos shows how our perceptions of racial ethnic and religious groups are intuitively shaped by where these groups live and interact daily Through the lens of numerous examples across the globe and drawing on a compelling combination of research techniques including field and laboratory experiments big data analysis and small scale interactions this timely book provides a new understanding of how geography shapes politics and how members of groups think about each other Enos analysis is punctuated with personal accounts from the field His rigorous research unfolds in accessible writing that will appeal to specialists and non specialists alike illuminating the profound effects of social geography on how we relate to think about and politically interact across groups in the fabric of our daily lives Jacket Life as a Geographer in India Anu Kapur, 2021-04-22 This is the first book which provides an engaging and insightful narrative on the life of a geographer in India. The author introspects on her own experiences and engagements with the discipline and explores the life and works of twenty-four other geographers from India. The volume documents and acknowledges the commitment of geographers to life teaching and the subject of geography. Collectively, these provide an insight into the growth and expansion of the discipline in the country. The book offers critical perspectives on the changing disciplinary practices within the field of geography by highlighting the major achievements and teaching methods of geographers. It highlights the diverse interests, themes, and problems in geography which these geographers pursued while also influencing the lives of other researchers and professionals. This book will be of immense interest to students, teachers, and researchers of geography and social anthropology and readers interested in the lives of these influential educators and academicians.
