Handbook of Research on Leadership Experience for Academic Direction \(LEAD\) Programs for Student Success Salinitri, Geri, 2020-02-28

Leadership Experience for Academic Directions LEAD is a program that was developed as a service learning program for teacher candidates in preparation for the teaching career As youth populations continue to diversify and as the issues impacting youth continue to surface it is the responsibility of educators administrators and the governments to provide all the opportunities for youth to succeed academically socially and personally Teachers especially are instrumental in making this happen therefore it is imperative that teachers come into the profession with the cognitive and non cognitive skills to motivate youth to succeed The Handbook of Research on Leadership Experience for Academic Direction LEAD Programs for Student Success s a critical scholarly book that explores the many facets of the teaching profession as they relate to working with at risk youth and helping them reach their full potential This book provides the groundwork for programs that will succeed at the K 12 education level and at the teacher education level Featuring a range of topics such as human capital mental health and social learning theory this book is essential for academicians teaching professionals administrators professional development educators policymakers researchers and students

Teacher Education in Professional Learning Communities Xuefeng Huang,2018-06-20 This book explores the unique experiences of a sister school network in Canada and China contextualized through the lens of the Reciprocal Learning Project which supports the relationship between a school network and teacher education exchange program of two countries Huang uses theoretical viewpoints from teacher learning and comparative education research to analyse and interpret what has happened in the emerging cross cultural school network The book juxtaposes teacher learning and comparative education research from Shanghai and Ontario as teachers in the two places interact and provides detailed descriptions of teacher collaboration to show how these collaborations were initiated developed and sustained as well as the impact brought about from these collaborations The book offers a unique opportunity to examine how Canadian and Chinese teachers receive and react to opportunities of cross cultural collaboration and learning

International Summit on the Teaching Profession Empowering and Enabling Teachers to Improve Equity and Outcomes for All Gomendio Montserrat,2017-03-24 Despite increased funding and many reforms most education systems are still seeking ways to better prepare their students for a world in which technological change and the digital revolution are changing the way we work live and relate to one another Education systems that have succeeded in

Decolonizing Educational Assessment Ardavan Eizadirad,2019-09-06 This book examines the history of standardized testing in Ontario leading to the current context and its impact on racialized identities particularly on Grade 3 students parents and educators Using a theoretical argument supplemented with statistical trends the author illuminates how EQAO tests are culturally and racially biased and promote a Eurocentric curriculum and way of life privileging white students and those from higher socio economic status This book spurs readers to further question the use of EQAO standardized testing and challenges us to consider alternative models which serve the needs of all students

Educational Leadership in Becoming Nuraan Davids,Yusef Waghid,2016-08-25 Educational Leadership in Becoming reconsiders educational leadership in its current forms and presents a more plausible form of educational leadership to contend with the complexities currently found in universities and schools Much of the literature in vogue concerning educational leadership ranges from transactional to transformative representations of the concept in relation to educational management and policy curriculum inquiry and pedagogical action The primary aim of this book is to revisit some of the dominant understandings of educational leadership and to offer an extended view of the practice along the lines of potentiality and becoming Davids and Waghid argue that all current forms of educational leadership are insufficient to enact responsible human action particularly when it comes to addressing the combined issues of globalisation and equitable redress and transformation whether in relation to leading schools or universities The primary objective of the book is to draw on the Agambian notion of becoming in order to show that an educational leadership in becoming is better placed to not only address the myriad challenges besetting education but to also enhance the potential of leadership in action The book addresses an international audience by analysing conceptions of transformative leadership and should be read by anyone who is interested in education and educational leadership as well as the impact of neoliberal agendas on education and society It should also appeal to those interested in the philosophy of education

Youth Employment in Sub-Saharan Africa Deon Filmer, Louise Fox, 2014-01-24 This book focuses on how to improve the quality of jobs and meet the aspirations of youth in Sub Saharan Africa It finds that a strong foundation for human capital development can be key to boosting earnings arguing for a balanced approach that builds skills and demand for labor

Handbook of Cultural Studies and Education Peter Pericles Trifonas, Susan Jagger, 2018-11-15 The Handbook of Cultural Studies in Education brings together interdisciplinary voices to ask critical questions about the meanings of diverse forms of cultural studies and the ways in which it can enrich both education scholarship and practice Examining multiple forms mechanisms and actors of resistance in cultural studies it seeks to bridge the gap between theory and practice by examining the theme of resistance in multiple fields and contested spaces from a holistic multi dimensional perspective converging insights from leading scholars practitioners and community activists Particular focus is paid to the practical role and impact of these converging fields in challenging rupturing subverting and changing the dominant socio economic political and cultural forces that work to maintain injustice and inequity in various educational contexts With contributions from international scholars this handbook serves as a key transdisciplinary resource for scholars and students interested in how and in what forms Cultural Studies can be applied to education

Assessment in Education Shelleyann Scott, Donald E. Scott, Charles F. Webber, 2015-10-20 This book provides key insights into how educational leaders can successfully navigate the turbulence of political debate surrounding leading student assessment and professionalised practice Given the highly politicised nature of assessment it addresses leaders and aspiring leaders who are open to being challenged willing to explore controversy and capable of engaging in informed critical discourse The book presents the macro concepts that these audiences must have to guide optimal assessment policy and practice Collectively the chapters highlight important assessment purposes and models including intended and unintended effects of assessment in a globalised context The book provides opportunities to explore cultural similarities and particularities It invites readers to challenge taken for granted assumptions about ourselves and colleagues in other settings The chapters highlight the cultural clashes that may occur when cross cultural borrowing of assessment strategies policies and tools takes place However authors also encourage sophisticated critical analyses of potential lessons that may be drawn from other contexts and systems Readers will encounter challenges from authors to deconstruct their assessment values beliefs and preconceptions Indeed one purpose of the book is to destabilise certainties about assessment that prevail and to embrace the assessment possibilities that can emerge from cognitive dissonance

Evaluation of the Achievement Levels for Mathematics and Reading on the National Assessment of Educational Progress National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Testing and Assessment, Committee on National Statistics, Committee on the Evaluation of NAEP Achievement Levels for Mathematics and Reading, 2017-05-12 Since 1969 the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP has been providing policymakers educators and the public with reports on academic performance and progress of the nation's students The assessment is given periodically in a variety of subjects mathematics reading writing science the arts civics economics geography U S history and technology and engineering literacy NAEP is given to representative samples of students across the U S to assess the educational progress of the nation as a whole Since 1992 NAEP results have been reported in relation to three achievement levels basic proficient and advanced However the use of achievement levels has provoked controversy and disagreement and evaluators have identified numerous concerns This publication evaluates the NAEP student achievement levels in reading and mathematics in grades 4 8 and 12 to determine whether the achievement levels are reasonable reliable valid and informative to the public and recommends ways that the setting and use of achievement levels can be improved

Cognitive and Affective Factors in Relation to Learning Mikaela Nyroos, Johan Korhonen, Riikka Mononen, 2022-11-10 Both domain general e.g. working memory executive functions and domain specific e.g. number processing phonological processing cognitive factors have been found to predict learning in different age groups Likewise research has shown that various affective factors such as different emotions e.g. anxiety self concept and interest need to be considered when investigating individual differences in learning However few studies have investigated both cognitive and affective factors simultaneously in relation to learning In particular there is a lack of studies investigating the interplay i.e. moderation and mediation between cognitive and affective factors on learning The goal of this Research Topic is to deepen our knowledge on the relations between learning and both cognitive and affective factors in different age groups We aim to provide a broad scope of emerging areas in research on cognitive and affective factors especially related to academic learning e.g. mathematics reading and other school subjects Studies focusing simultaneously looking at the interplay of these constructs as well as longitudinally are of great interest Further we are interested in innovative study designs and recent advances in methodology in this field To promote quality education for all and equity in education cognitive and affective factors related to aspects of learning ranging from pre school to tertiary provision and inclusion of individuals with special educational needs are of interest
