Languages, Identities and Intercultural Communication in South Africa and Beyond Russell H Kaschula,2021-08-23 African countries and South Africa in particular being multilingual and multicultural societies make for exciting sociolinguistic and applied language analysis in order to tease out the complex relationship between language and identity This book applies sociolinguistic theory as well as critical language awareness and translanguaging with its many facets to various communicative scenarios both on the continent and in South Africa in an accessible and practical way Africa lends itself to such sociolinguistic analysis concerning language identity and intercultural communication This book reflects consciously on the North South debate and the need for us to create our own ways of interpretation emanating from the South and speaking back to the North and on issues that pertain to the South including southern Africa Aspects such as language and power language planning policy and implementation culture prejudice social interaction translanguaging intercultural communication education gender and autoethnography are covered This is a valuable resource for students studying African sociolinguistics language and identity and applied language studies Anyone interested in the relationship between language and society on the African continent would also find the book easily accessible

Language in Epistemic Access Caroline Kerfoot,Anne-Marie Simon-Vandenberg,2018-07-26 This book focuses on how to address persistent linguistically structured inequalities in education primarily in relation to South African schools but also in conversation with Australian work and with resonances for other multilingual contexts around the world The book as a whole lays bare the tension between the commitment to multilingualism enshrined in the South African

Constitution and language in education policy and the realities of the dominance of English and the virtual absence of indigenous African languages in current educational practices It suggests that dynamic plurilingual pedagogies can be allied with the explicit scaffolding of genre based pedagogies to help redress asymmetries in epistemic access and to re imagine policies pedagogies and practices more in tune with the realities of multilingual classrooms The contributions to this book offer complementary insights on routes to improving access to school knowledge especially for learners whose home language or language variety is different to that of teaching and learning at school All subscribe to similar ideologies which include the view that multilingualism should be seen as a resource rather than a problem in education Commentaries on these chapters highlight evidence based high impact educational responses and suggest that translanguaging and genre may well offer opportunities for students to expand their linguistic repertoires and to bridge epistemological differences between community and school This book was originally published as a special issue of Language and Education

Rural Education

Across the World Simone White, Jayne Downey, 2021-03-22 This book brings together authors from United States South Africa United Kingdom China Canada and Australia to provide insights and case studies from across a range of contexts to explore the interplay between the notions of rurality innovation and education The book reveals a hopeful and resilient approach to innovative rural education and scholarship collectively and provides important evidence to speak against an often deficit view of rural education Three patterns are revealed namely the importance of place attentive strategies the importance of joined up alliances to maximise resources and networks and finally the need to utilize alternative methodologies and frameworks that have a starting point of difference rather than deficit for any rural initiative or approach By drawing from international examples and responding in innovative ways to rural education challenges this book provides an opportunity to share international insights into innovations interventions and partnerships that promote and support rural education in its broadest sense

The Language Issue in the Teaching of Mathematics in South Africa Lindiwe Tshuma, 2021-01-26 The book is the result of a five year project that culminated within the first three years in doctoral research interrogating language competency for meaningful mathematics instruction at upper primary level conducted at University of Stellenbosch in 2017 and this book in the succeeding two years The initial research project received countrywide coverage in several South African media outlets including Times Live and Radio 2000
