Mike Jess

Medical Janitorial Training Manual:

JD's Community Services Earl L. Burnett, 2022-02-16 The author's purpose for writing this book is to bring confidence to those who are in the cleaning services. It is the How To's in cleaning. This is a guide in being effective in cleaning. It confirms the uses of a task list and scope of work when performing cleaning services. It brings clarity and the ways of labeling chemical bottles and the use of colored cleaning rags for restrooms, kitchens, and offices and changing your gloves after they are torn and after cleaning restroom and moving forward applying the methods of cleaning tables and counter tops, bottle chair legs, baseboards, changing rags before moving toward to other areas, change rags as you clean low areas and change rags to clean high areas and when cleaning floors, carpets, and windows. The author provides step by step methods to assure the high quality of work to be taken. Lastly, with almost thirty years of experience, the author has taken the time and efforts in the detailed preparation of this manual in the hope that it will assist anyone. It is not to overshadow other businesses or a company's scope of work but to enhance those who are interested in being successful in cleaning.

It is directed to prepare graduate students for the new reality, address early career professionals' uncertainties, provide experienced practitioners with a new model, and provide patient advocates with examples to better serve consumers. Part I of this book discusses how the administrative, economic, legislative, and political issues related to mental health services are interwoven with the actual practice. Part II discusses the inner workings of clinical interventions through the author's observations as a psychologist, supervisor, and director of a for-profit practice, The Lighthouse Clinic. The Lighthouse Clinic aims to help patients effectively deal with their problems and to lead happier, better integrated lives. All mental health professionals who aim to perform this important clinical work in a manner consistent with humanistic and caring values will find Collaboration in Private Practice
