Activity Pages

1 Kings 17:8-16

She went away and did as Elijah had told her.
So there was food every day for Elijah
and for the woman and her family.
For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the Lord spoken by Elijah.

Preaching to a Postmodern World Graham M. Johnston,2001-07-01 While growing churches dot our urban centers and country landscapes church goers and students today are actually less likely to maintain a Christian worldview than in the past In fact the majority of society does not even believe in objective truth A minister out of touch with this culture is like an uninformed missionary trying to teach in a foreign country To communicate God s Word effectively in the twenty first century teachers need to know how to connect with and confront an audience of postmodern listeners In Preaching to a Postmodern World Johnston shows pastors seminary students professors lay teachers and church leaders can reach the present age without selling out to it The book discusses how to distinguish between modernism and postmodernism understand postmodern worldviews change the style of preaching without compromising the substance take advantage of new opportunities provided by the cultural shift show an inattentive society the relevance of God s truth The author s keen insights into contemporary pop and media culture also help equip speakers to address today s listeners with clarity and relevance
