Emir Kusturica Giorgio Bertellini, 2014-12-30 Emir Kusturica is one of Eastern Europe's most celebrated and influential filmmakers Over the course of a thirty year career Kusturica has navigated a series of geopolitical fault lines to produce subversive playful often satiric works On the way he won acclaim and widespread popularity while showing a genius for adjusting his poetic pitch shifting from romantic realist to controversial satirist to sentimental jester Leading scholar critic Giorgio Bertellini divides Kusturica's career into three stages dissention disconnection and dissonance to reflect both the historic and cultural changes going on around him and the changes his cinema has undergone He uses Kusturica's Palme d'Or winning Underground 1995 the famously inflammatory take on Yugoslav history after World War II as the pivot between the tone of romantic yet pungent critique of the director's early works and later journeys into Balkanist farce marked by slapstick and a self-conscious primitivism Eschewing the one-sided polemics Kusturica's work often provokes Bertellini employs balanced discussion and critical analysis to offer a fascinating and up to date consideration of a major figure in world cinema
