Benjamin Teresa Mi Shih Michael Levien Michael L Dwyer Heather Whiteside      The Drone Memos Jameel Jaffer, 2010-01-12 A trenchant summation and analysis of the legal rationales behind the US drone policy of targeted killing of suspected terrorists including US citizens Publishers Weekly starred review In the long response to 9 11 the US government initiated a deeply controversial policy of targeted killing the extrajudicial execution of suspected terrorists and militants typically via drones A remarkable effort was made to legitimize this practice one that most human rights experts agree is illegal and that the United States has historically condemned In The Drone Memos civil rights lawyer Jameel Jaffer presents and assesses the legal memos and policy documents that enabled the Obama administration to put this program into action In a lucid and provocative introduction Jaffer who led the ACLU legal team that secured the release of many of the documents evaluates the drone memos in light of domestic and international law He connects the documents legal abstractions to the real world violence they allow and makes the case that we are trading core principles of democracy and human rights for the illusion of security A careful study of a secretive counterterrorism infrastructure capable of sustaining endless orderless war this book is profoundly necessary Katrina vanden Heuvel editor and publisher of The Nation

PLATE: Product Lifetimes And The Environment Conny A. Bakker, 2017-11-15 Product lifetimes are critical for the circular economy resource efficiency waste reduction and low carbon strategies for sustainability and are therefore of interest to academics from many different disciplines as well as original equipment manufacturers OEMs and other stakeholders The challenges related to product lifetimes must be tackled from multiple perspectives making the sharing of knowledge and expertise from different disciplines particularly important This book presents papers from the second Product Lifetime and the Environment PLATE conference held in Delft the Netherlands in November 2017 The conference originated from the desire to bring together academic researchers working in the field of sustainability to benefit from each other s knowledge and further advance the field The book includes the 88 full papers delivered at the conference grouped according to the following 7 conference themes design for product longevity product lifetime optimization cultural perspectives on the throwaway society circular economy and product lifetimes business opportunities economic implications and marketing strategies consumer influences on product lifetimes and policy regulation and legislation The book will be of interest to all those concerned with sustainable consumption circular economy and resource efficiency      Sustainable Peace in

Northeast Asia Yong-Shik Lee, 2023-09-05 Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia examines the causes of lasting and complex tensions in the region from underlying political historical military and economic perspectives discusses their historical development and political economic implications for the world and explores possible solutions to build lasting peace The book is unique in that it approaches the topic from the historical perspective of each constituent country in the region Major global powers such as the United States and Russia have also closely engaged in the political and economic affairs of this region through a network of alliances diplomacy trade and investment The book also discusses the influence of these external powers over the crisis their political and economic objectives in the region their strategies and the dynamics that their engagement has created Both South Korea and North Korea have sought reunification of the Korean peninsula which will have a substantial impact on the region The book examines its justification feasibility and effects for the region The book discusses the role of Mongolia in the context of the power dynamics in Northeast Asia A relatively small country in terms of its population Mongolia has rarely been examined in this context Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia makes a fresh assessment of its potential role Lands of the Future Echi Christina Gabbert,Fana Gebresenbet,John G. Galaty,Günther Schlee,2021-01-15 Rangeland forests and riverine landscapes of pastoral communities in Eastern Africa are increasingly under threat Abetted by states who think that outsiders can better use the lands than the people who have lived there for centuries outside commercial interests have displaced indigenous dwellers from pastoral territories This volume presents case studies from Eastern Africa based on long term field research that vividly illustrate the struggles and strategies of those who face dispossession and also discredit ideological false modernist tropes like backwardness and primitiveness

Western Balkan Economies in Transition Reiner Osbild,Will Bartlett,2018-08-23 This book explores the economic and social development of the Western Balkan region a group of six countries that are potential candidates for EU membership It focuses on the key economic issues facing these countries including the challenge of promoting economic growth limiting public deficits and debt and fostering international trade relations Given the severe impact of the recent economic crisis on social welfare in the region it also investigates the nature and extent of social exclusion a factor likely to produce future political instabilities if not effectively addressed by a return to sustainable economic growth The contributions explore these issues in light of the major influence of EU policy instruments and advice which are currently guiding the economies along an accession trajectory to future EU membership 2024-25 Geography India and World based on NCERT VI-XII one liner YCT Expert Team, 2024 25 Geography India and World based on NCERT VI XII one liner 160 295 Border Water Stephen P.
