Geography Paper 2 Memorandum November 2013:

Decolonization and Conflict Martin Thomas, Gareth Curless, 2017-06-15 Insurgency based irregular warfare typifies armed conflict in the post Cold War age For some years now western and other governments have struggled to contend with ideologically driven guerrilla movements religiously inspired militias and systematic targeting of civilian populations Numerous conflicts of this type are rooted in experiences of empire breakdown Yet few multi empire studies of decolonisation s violence exist Decolonization and Conflict brings together expertise on a variety of different cases to offer new perspectives on the colonial conflicts that engulfed Europe s empires after 1945 The contributors analyse multiple forms of colonial counter insurgency from the military engagement of anti colonial movements to the forced removal of civilian populations and the application of new doctrines of psychological warfare Contributors to the collection also show how insurgencies their propaganda and methods of action were inherently transnational and inter connected The resulting study is a vital contribution to our understanding of contested decolonization It emphasises the global connections at work and reveals the contemporary resonances of both anti colonial insurgencies and the means devised to counter them It is essential reading for students and scholars of empire decolonization and asymmetric warfare Deepening Neoliberalism, Austerity, and Crisis Julien Mercille, Enda Murphy, 2015-07-07 From bank bailouts to austerity Europe s and Ireland s response to the economic crisis has been engineered specifically to shift the burden of paying for the crisis onto ordinary citizens while investors financiers bankers and the privileged are protected The authors expose the class based nature of Ireland s crisis resolution Big Data Applications in Geography and Planning Mark Birkin, Graham Clarke, Jonathan Corcoran, Robert Stimson, 2021-05-28 This unique book demonstrates the utility of big data approaches in human geography and planning Offering a carefully curated selection of case studies it reveals how researchers are accessing big data what this data looks like and how such data can offer new and important insights and knowledge Tigray: The Panarchy of War Mirjam Van Reisen, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2024-11-17 The Tigray War 2020 2022 left a deep and lasting impact not only on Tigray but also on the wider Horn of Africa In this second book in a three part series the authors examine the devastation wrought by the war on Tigray s cultural heritage and identity The deliberate destruction of ancient cultural sites and the assault on the Tigrayan people s identity have fueled a desire for greater autonomy among the people of Tigray to protect their future Through the lens of Panarchy this book explores how the war s effects extend far beyond Tigray reshaping the dynamics of the entire region Crucially it uncovers Eritrea s secret role in the conflict which was deliberately concealed by Ethiopia Eritrean forces were implicated not only in atrocities but also in the use of particularly cruel and inhumane sexual violence intended to break the spirit of the Tigrayan people and erase Tigray as an ethnic and cultural group This ethnographic research conducted in collaboration with universities inside and outside Ethiopia reveals the profound transformations caused by the war with consequences that will reverberate for years to come It sheds light on the war s long term impact and highlights the urgent need for international attention on the challenges faced by Tigray and the wider region Islam and the Liberal State Stephen H. Jones, 2020-11-26 National identity and liberal democracy are recurrent themes in debates about Muslim minorities in the West Britain is no exception with politicians responding to claims about Muslims lack of integration by mandating the promotion of fundamental British values including democracy and individual liberty This book engages with both these themes addressing the lack of understanding about the character of British Islam and its relationship to the liberal state It charts a gradual but decisive shift in British institutions concerned with Islamic education Islamic law and Muslim representation since Muslims settled in the UK in large numbers in the 1950s Based on empirical research including interviews undertaken over a ten year period with Muslims and analysis of public events organized by Islamic institutions Stephen Jones challenges claims about the isolation of British Islamic organizations and shows that they have decisively shaped themselves around British public and institutional norms He argues that this amounts to the building of a distinctive British Islam Using this narrative the book makes the case for a variety of liberalism that is open to the expression of religious arguments in public and to associations between religious groups and the state It also offers a powerful challenge to claims about the insularity of British Islamic institutions by showing how the national orientation of Islam called for by British policymakers is in fact already happening

Dead Tree Media Michael Stamm, 2018-10-16 A deep and timely account of how American newspapers were produced and distributed on paper Winner of the Best Book in Canadian Business History by the Canadian Business History Association Popular assessments of printed newspapers have become so grim that some have taken to calling them dead tree media as a way of invoking the medium's imminent demise There is a literal truth hidden in this dismissive expression printed newspapers really are material goods made from trees And throughout the twentieth century the overwhelming majority of trees cut down in the service of printing newspapers in the United States came from Canada In Dead Tree Media Michael Stamm reveals the international history of the commodity chains connecting Canadian trees and US readers Drawing on newly available corporate documents and research in archives across North America Stamm offers a sophisticated rethinking of the material history of the printed newspaper Tracing its industrial production from the forest to the newsstand he provides an account of the obscure and often hidden labor involved in this manufacturing process by showing how it was driven by not only publishers and journalists but also lumberjacks paper mill workers policymakers chemists and urban and regional planners Stamm describes the 1911 shift in tariff policy that gave US publishers duty free access to Canadian newsprint providing a tremendous boost to Canadian paper manufacturers and a significant subsidy to American newspaper publishers He also explains how Canada attracted massive American foreign investment in paper mills around the same time that US publishers were able to gain greater access to Canada's vast spruce forests Focusing particularly on the Chicago Tribune Stamm provides a new history of the rise and fall of both the mass circulation printed newspaper and the particular kind of corporation in the newspaper business that had shaped many aspects of the cultural political and even physical landscape of North America For those seeking to understand the travails of the contemporary newspaper business Dead Tree Media is essential reading

Conflict Areas in the Balkans Pinar Yürür, Arda Özkan, 2020-10-27 The situation in the Balkans such as the solution to the status of Kosovo is currently the largest international political problem in Europe with the potential to burst into a world crisis regarding the Eastern Western relations On the other hand a successful solution to the problem in the Balkans could serve as a model for solving the Muslim Christian tensions elsewhere in the world It is the intention of this book to contribute proposals for solutions to the problems of Balkans The starting principle for the solutions to be effective is that they should come in a natural way from the people below and should not be enforced by the political elites from above Based on self determination of nations as a starting principle they should encourage intra regional cooperation among the regional entities economic cultural sport as a basis for political social understanding and cooperation secondly accelerate their economic political and social development and thirdly as a final step enable the inclusion of the Balkan countries into the European Union
