Geography Paper 2 June Memo:

Census Bureau Methodological Research United States. Bureau of the Census, 1969 National Library of Medicine
Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1968 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Antarctica David Day, 2013-05-03 Since the first sailing ships spied the Antarctic coastline in 1820 the frozen continent has captured the world's imagination David Day's brilliant biography of Antarctica describes in fascinating detail every aspect of this vast land's history two centuries of exploration scientific investigation and contentious geopolitics Drawing from archives from around the world Day provides a sweeping large scale history of Antarctica Focusing on the dynamic personalities drawn to this unconquered land the book offers an engaging collective biography of explorers and scientists battling the elements in the most hostile place on earth We see intrepid sea captains picking their way past icebergs and pushing to the edge of the shifting pack ice sanguinary sealers and whalers drawn south to exploit the Penguin El Dorado famed nineteenth century explorers like Scott and Amundson in their highly publicized race to the South Pole and aviators like Clarence Ellsworth and Richard Byrd flying over great stretches of undiscovered land Yet Antarctica is also the story of nations seeking to incorporate the Antarctic into their national narratives and to claim its frozen wastes as their own As Day shows in a place as remote as Antarctica claiming land was not just about seeing a place for the first time or raising a flag over it it was about mapping and naming and more generally knowing its geographic and natural features And ultimately after a little known decision by FDR to colonize Antarctica claiming territory meant establishing full time bases on the White Continent The end of the Second World War would see one last scramble for polar territory but the onset of the International Geophysical Year in 1957 would launch a cooperative effort to establish scientific bases across the continent And with the Antarctic Treaty science was in the ascendant and cooperation rather than competition was the new watchword on the ice Tracing history from the first sighting of land up to the present day Antarctica is a fascinating exploration of this deeply alluring land and man's struggle to claim it Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1975 Suburban Alchemy
Nicholas Dagen Bloom, 2001 In Suburban Alchemy 1960s New Towns and the Transformation of the American Dream Nicholas Dagen Bloom examines the new town movement of the 1960s which sought to transform the physical and social environments of American suburbs by showing that idealism could be profitable Bloom offers case studies of three of the movement's more famous examples Reston Virginia Columbia Maryland and Irvine California to flesh out his historical account In each case innovative planners mixed land uses and housing types refined architectural graphic and landscape design offered well defined village and town centers and pioneered institutional planning As Bloom demonstrates these efforts did not uniformly succeed and attempts to reshape community life through design notably faltered However despite frequent disappointments and compromises the residents have kept the new town ideals alive for over four decades and produced a vital form of suburban community that is far more complicated and interesting than the early vision promoted by the town planners Lively chapters illustrate efforts in local politics civic spirit social and racial integration feminist innovations and cultural sponsorship Suburban Alchemy should be of interest to scholars of U S urban history planning history and community development as well as the general reader interested in the development of alternative communities in the United States Sessional Papers of the Dominion of Canada Canada. Parliament,1904 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as an addendum to vol 26 no 7 Making Cities

Work for All Data and Actions for Inclusive Growth OECD,2016-10-13 This report provides ground breaking internationally comparable data on economic growth inequalities and well being at the city level in OECD countries and a framework for action to help national and local governments reorient policies towards more inclusive growth in cities

Title Announcement Bulletin ,1957 Globalising Worlds and New Economic Configurations Christine Tamasy,2017-11-28 Over the last few decades circuits of capital have been stretched through processes of economic globalization leading to complex and hybrid outcomes that result in different modes of production and consumption Understanding these new economic configurations and their geographic patterns requires incorporating new theoretical arguments based on for example chain and network concepts This edited volume brings together theoretically informed analysis from Asia Europe and North America to illustrate the way in which new economic configurations have been developed and to understand individual local and regional responses to a variety of global challenges threats and opportunities The different examples presented illustrate that economic structures and flows have changed dramatically over the past decades with profound impacts for the economic and regional actors involved Battle Of Single European Market Gilles Grin,2012-11-12 First published in 2004 This book studies the history of the single or internal market of the European Union since its beginnings after the Second World War until the end of 2000 The perspective is pluridisciplinary and incorporates several dimensions historical political economic legal and sociological
