Theologies on the Move Joerg Rieger, 2020-10-13 Theologies on the Move Religion Migration and Pilgrimage in the World of Neoliberal Capital speaks to the reality that many religions have developed in motion with people exploring new boundaries migrating and being displaced Consequently major religious traditions form as they come into contact with other religions and cultures typically in situations of struggle and pressure Due to neoliberal capitalism more people are on the move today than ever before Most are driven by necessity migration due to violence poverty and perceived poverty others by religious quests that are often fueled by experiences of tension pilgrimage The chapters in this volume explore the complexity of these situations examining in detail how theology and religion shape up in various contexts on the move and investigating specific problems and tensions in order to suggest solutions alternatives and new possibilities

Commodification of Global Agrifood Systems and Agro-Ecology Yıldız Atasoy, 2017-05-18 This book explores the shifting relations of food provisioning in Turkey from a comparative global political economy perspective It offers in depth ethnographic analysis interviews and historical insights into the ambiguities and diversities that simultaneously affect the changing conditions of food and agriculture in Turkey Specific issues examined include the commodification of land food and labour the expansion and deepening of industrial standardization the expansion of a supermarket model and concomitant changes in as well as the simultaneous co existence of traditional methods of production and marketing Contrasting observations are drawn from diverse locales to provide examples of convergence divergence and cohabitation in relation to transnationally advocated industrial models

Commodification of Global Agrifood Systems and Agro Ecology employs a form of comparative perspective that allows the particular processes of restructuring of agrifood relations in Turkey to be simultaneously distinguished from yet related to changes taking place in global power dynamics Y ld z Atasoy explores agrifood transformation in Turkey with a unique approach that considers a plurality of intertwined normative influences ontological beliefs cultural religious narratives political struggles and critical interpretive positions Based on original research the book treats changes in food provisioning as an analytical thread capable of uncovering how the normative acceptability of capitalized agriculture and techno scientific innovation is entangled with processes of class formation growing inter capitalist competition and Islamic politics Such processes in turn frame income wealth generation landscape management agro ecological dynamics and labour practices as well as the taste and smell of place

Russian Modernization Markku Kivinen, Brendan G. Humphreys, 2020-11-29 Building on an original interpretation of social theory and an interdisciplinary approach this book creates a new paradigm in the Russian studies Taking a fresh view of Russia s multiple experiences of modernization it seeks to explain the Putin era in a completely new way This book explores the paradoxical and contradictory aspects of Russia analyzing the energy dependent economy and hybrid political regime but also religion welfare and culture and their often complex interrelations Written by a community of both Western and Russian scholars this book re affirms the value of social science when confronting a society that has undergone enormous and costly systematic changes The Russian elites see modernization narrowly as economic and technological competitiveness The contributors to this volume see contemporary Russia facing a series of antinomies which are macro level dilemmas that cannot be abolished either by philosophical mediation or by immediate political decisions As such they are the tension fields that constitute choices for various competing agencies This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Russian studies transition studies sociology social policy political science energy policy cultural studies and stratification studies Professionals involved in energy ecology and security policy will also find this publication a rich source

Handbook of Neoliberalism Simon Springer, Kean Birch, Julie MacLeavy, 2016-07-07 Neoliberalism is easily one of the most powerful discourses to emerge within the social sciences in the last two decades and the number of scholars who write about this dynamic and unfolding process of socio spatial transformation is astonishing Even more surprising though is that there has until now not been an attempt to provide a wide ranging volume that engages with the multiple registers in which neoliberalism has evolved The Routledge Handbook of Neoliberalism seeks to offer a comprehensive overview of the phenomenon of neoliberalism by examining the range of ways that it has been theorized promoted critiqued and put into practice in a variety of geographical locations and institutional frameworks With contributions from over 50 leading authors working at institutions around the world the volumes seven sections will offer a systematic overview of neoliberalism s origins political implications social tensions spaces natures and environments and aftermaths in addressing ongoing and emerging debates The volume aims to provide the first comprehensive overview of the field and to advance the established and emergent debates in a field that has grown exponentially over the past two decades coinciding with the meteoric rise of neoliberalism as a hegemonic ideology state form policy and program and governmentality It includes a substantive introductory chapter and will serve as an invaluable resource for undergraduates graduate students and professional scholars alike
