OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education: Student Assessment in Turkey Kitchen Hannah, Bethell George, Fordham Elizabeth, Henderson Kirsteen, Li Richard Ruochen, 2019-09-09 Turkey's education system stands out internationally as a success story. In recent decades participation has been vastly expanded becoming universal at lower levels of schooling and outperforming other middle income countries in upper secondary education. However the education system is also marked by disparities with only around half of 15 year olds acquiring the essential competencies they need for life and work      Power in Language, Culture, Literature and Education Marta Degani, Werner Delanoy, 2023-04-24 In one of the contributions to this edited volume an interviewee argues that English is power. For researchers in the field of English Studies this raises the questions of where the power of English resides and which types and practices of power are implied in the uses of English. Linguists, scholars of literature and culture and language educators address aspects of these questions in a wide range of contributions. The book shows that the power of English can oscillate between empowerment and subjection on the one hand enabling humans to develop manifold capabilities and on the other constraining their scope of action and reflection. In this edited volume a case is made for self-critical English Studies to be dialogic, empowering and power-critical in approach      Wall of Illusion Joseph A. Bulko, 2013-09-12 I was born in Jarabina in Northeastern Slovakia in 1939 a town of approximately 280 homes founded in 1329. The town consisted of private homes, a church, a school up to the 6th grade and a general store with a bar and a dance hall for the town's use for weddings and dances on special holidays. I was born in 1939 at the start of World War II. This was written because of the urging of my children without whose encouragement it would not have been written. I hope you enjoy reading it.
