Handbook of Research on Teaching in Multicultural and Multilingual Contexts Charamba, Erasmios, 2022-06-24

Several factors have resulted in increased intra and inter state migration This has led to an increase in the enrollment of students with diverse linguistics backgrounds placing more academic demands on educators Linguistic diversity presents both opportunities and challenges for educators across the educational spectrum Language ideologies profoundly shape and constrain the use of language as a resource for learning in multilingual or linguistically diverse classrooms While English has become the world language most communities remain and are becoming more and more multicultural multilingual and diverse The Handbook of Research on Teaching in Multicultural and Multilingual Contexts moves beyond the constraints of current language ideologies and enables the use of a wide range of resources from local semiotic repertoires It examines the phenomenon of language use language teaching multiculturalism and multilingualism in different learning areas giving practitioners a voice to spotlight their efforts in order to keep their teaching afloat in culturally and linguistically diverse situations Covering topics such as Indigenous languages multilingual deaf communities and intercultural competence this major reference work is an essential resource for educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers educational psychologists linguists education administrators and policymakers government officials researchers and academicians

The People's Paper Peter Limb, 2012-09-01 This much awaited volume uncovers the long lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper Abantu Batho Founded in 1912 by African National Congress ANC convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen it was published up until 1931 attracting the cream of African politicians journalists and poets Mqhayi Nontsisi Mqgqweth and Grendon In its pages burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural by ways The People s Paper comprising both essays and an anthology explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never before published columns from the paper spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus and by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines The People s Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented The African Book Publishing Record ,2001

Reflections on School Integration Mokubung O. Nkomo, Carolyn McKinney, Linda Chisholm, 2004 School integration means among other things that the divisions created by apartheid need to be addressed systematically and systemically Integration is not merely about changing the racial demographics of learner and educator bodies It means schools changing to meet the needs of all children fostering meaningful interaction among learners in the classroom on the playground and in extra mural activities as well as instilling a human rights culture It means constructing curricula texts and pedagogies that are informed by a democratic ethos and it requires teachers school managers and communities that are equipped to promote a democratic school environment In short it is about inclusivity and social cohesion And the issue of integration is as pertinent internationally as it is in South Africa questions of race racism citizenship and diversity are central to school systems throughout the world This book contains the proceedings of a colloquium held in October 2003 attended by leading South African and international researchers to take stock of the status quo in school integration and identify new directions research should be taking to support the process of change

Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development Preparing Globally Minded Literacy Teachers Jan Lacina, Robin Griffith, 2019-11-15 This textbook brings together internationally renowned scholars to provide an overview of print and digital literacy instruction for pre service teachers and teacher educators It examines historical and cultural contexts of literacy practices around the globe and addresses issues that teachers need to consider as they teach children from diverse world cultures languages and backgrounds Organized into three Parts Early Literacy Intermediate to Adolescent Literacy and Case Studies the text highlights key practices around the world to provide literacy educators and students with a broader view of effective practices as well as strategies for overcoming challenges faced by literacy educators worldwide The global case studies present complex issues and allow readers to discuss what it means to be globally minded as well as how to implement best practices in literacy instruction All chapters include consistent elements for ease of use such as vignettes historical and cultural contexts implications for future research and discussion questions Grounded in current research and theory this book is designed for foundational courses in literacy education and literacy methods as well as courses in comparative and multicultural education Journal of Psychology in Africa ,2009 South African national bibliography ,1999 Classified list with author and title index Drum ,2009-04 Progress, Change and Development in Early Childhood Education and Care Elizabeth Coates, Dorothy Faulkner, 2017-10-02 In 2000 the Millennium Development Goals set out targets aimed at creating a safer more prosperous and more equitable world If these goals were to be achieved children s lives would indeed be transformed In this collection achievements against these targets are identified with each contributor examining the progress made in early years provision in Australia China England Greece the Netherlands Portugal South Africa and Sweden They highlight the priorities and agendas of their respective governments and focus on the trends and issues which are particularly relevant to each situation thereby revealing the social and educational inequalities that persist across countries A common theme running through this volume concerns the political tensions that arise when governments and educators hold fundamentally different views about the nature and purpose of early years education and the needs of children and families It is clear that although the past two decades have seen many changes in attitude towards the importance of the early years of life politically economically and environmentally much still remains to be done if the Millennium Development Goals for young children and their families are to be fully met Despite this this volume demonstrates that those who work in this area continue to experience a deep concern for the well being of young children which transcends cultures frontiers and political and sectarian divides This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Early Years Education Southern African Books in Print ,1994 Drawing for Science Education Phyllis Katz,2017-03-23 This book argues for the essential use of drawing as a tool for science teaching and learning The authors are working in schools universities and continual science learning CSL settings around the world They have written of their experiences using a variety of prompts to encourage people to take pen to paper and draw their thinking sometimes direct observation and in other instances their memories The result is a collection of research and essays that offer theory techniques outcomes and models for the reader Young children have provided evidence of the perceptions that they have accumulated from families and the media before they reach classrooms Secondary students describe their ideas of chemistry and physics Teacher educators use drawings to consider the progress of their undergraduates understanding of science teaching and even their moral ethical responses to teaching about climate change Museum visitors have drawn their understanding of the physics of how exhibit sounds are transmitted A physician explains how the history of drawing has been a critical tool to medical education and doctor patient communications Each chapter contains samples insights and where applicable analysis techniques The chapters in this book should be helpful to researchers and teachers alike across the teaching and learning continuum The sections are divided by the kinds of activities for which drawing has historically been used in science education An instance of observation Audubon Linnaeus A process how plants grow over time what happens when chemicals combine Conceptions of what science is and who does it Images of identity development in science teaching and learning Zulu Independent Examinations Board,1997 IsiZulu South Africa.
