Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in High School Mark Newman, Xiaoning Chen, 2021-11-15 Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in High School Connecting Inquiry and Visual Literacy to Promote Progressive Learning explores effective strategies for teaching social studies to diverse learners The centerpiece is a visual literacy framework that integrates inquiry primary source analysis and visual literacy to provide a progressive learning sequence to meet the varied needs of learners The visual literacy framework brings together related aspects of progressive sequential learning into a cohesive whole It has an adaptable structure that allows teachers to customize learning activities to meet individual student needs The progressive learning sequence has varied modes of learning that help teachers move students from basic to proficient to advanced levels of support The book is organized into two related parts The first three chapters provide important content and context on social studies multilingual learner education and the visual literacy framework The remaining chapters discuss civics U S history world history geography and economics and social sciences Each chapter defines the subject area briefly traces its development as a high school subject over time and then offers classroom exercises for using the visual literacy framework in these disciplines The exercises are plotted so that differing levels of the visual literacy framework are explored throughout the book

Assessment in Geographical Education: An International Perspective Theresa Bourke, Reece Mills, Rod Lane, 2022-02-27 In recent years there has been increased attention paid to the importance of assessment in Geographical Education the chosen subject for this book Assessment is an important tool for collecting information about student learning and for providing timely data to inform key stakeholders including students teachers parents and policymakers To be effective assessment needs to be valid reliable and fair Validity is about ensuring that we assess what we claim we are assessing Reliability is about measuring performance and understanding in a consistent way Without validity and reliability assessment is unlikely to provide equitable opportunities for students to demonstrate what they know and can do As geography educators it is therefore important that we identify the core concepts and skills in geography that we want students to master We need a clear understanding of what the progression of learning looks like for each concept and skill so we can develop fit for purpose assessments that track and improve student learning While there is a substantial literature on evidence based assessment in secondary school contexts research exploring best practice assessment in geography is rare This is a concern given the distinctive nature of geography and the important role of assessment in the learning process This scholarly collection seeks to address this issue by connecting research in educational assessment with the domain of geography The chapters are written by leading researchers in Geographical Education from across the globe These chapters provide examples of innovation through the collective voices of geography teacher educator scholars from across Australia USA South Korea Germany Switzerland and Singapore What unifies the work in this book is that each chapter focuses on a key feature of the discipline of geography providing scholarly examples of evidence based practices for assessing student s knowledge and skills

challenges UNESCO,2015-04-08 Literaturverz S 414 459 Tribes and Global Jihadism Virginie Collombier,Olivier Roy,2018-01-15 Across the Muslim world from Iraq and Yemen to Egypt and the Sahel new alliances have been forged between the latest wave of violent Islamist groups including Islamic State and Boko Haram and local tribes But can one now speak of a direct link between tribalism and jihadism and how analytically useful might it be Tribes are traditionally thought to resist all encroachments upon their sovereignty whether by the state or other local actors from below yet by joining global organizations such as Islamic State are they not rejecting the idea of the state from above This triangular relationship is key to understanding instances of mass radicalization when entire communities forge alliances with jihadi groups for reasons of self interest self preservation or religious fervor If Algeria s FIS or Turkey s AKP once represented the Islamization of nationalism have we now entered a new era the tribalization of globalization Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in Middle School Xiaoning Chen,Mark Newman,2021-12-08 Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in Middle School Connecting Inquiry and Visual Literacy to Promote Progressive Learning explores effective strategies for teaching social studies to multilingual learners The centerpiece is a visual literacy framework that integrates inquiry primary source analysis and visual literacy to provide a progressive learning sequence to meet the varied needs of learners The visual literacy framework brings together related aspects of progressive sequential learning into a cohesive coherent whole It has an adaptable structure that allows teachers to customize learning activities to meet individual student needs The progressive learning sequence has varied modes of learning that help teachers move students from basic to proficient to advanced levels of support This book is organized into two related parts The first three chapters provide important content and context on social studies multilingual learner education and the visual literacy framework The remaining chapters discuss U S history world history geography and civics government Each chapter defines the subject area briefly traces its development as a middle school subject over time and offers classroom exercises on using the visual literacy framework in these disciplines The exercises are plotted so that differing levels of the visual literacy framework are explored throughout the book "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2014" ,2014 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 Building America's Skilled Technical Workforce National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,National Academy of Engineering,Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Policy and Global Affairs,Board on Science Education,Board on Higher Education and Workforce,Board on Science, Technology, and Economic Policy,Committee on the Supply Chain for Middle-Skill Jobs: Education, Training, and Certification Pathways,2017-05-04 Skilled technical occupations defined as occupations that require a high level of knowledge in a technical domain but do not require a bachelor s degree for entry are a key component of the U S economy In response to globalization and advances in science and technology American firms are demanding workers with greater proficiency in literacy and numeracy as well as strong interpersonal technical and problem solving skills

However employer surveys and industry and government reports have raised concerns that the nation may not have an adequate supply of skilled technical workers to achieve its competitiveness and economic growth objectives In response to the broader need for policy information and advice Building America s Skilled Technical Workforce examines the coverage effectiveness flexibility and coordination of the policies and various programs that prepare Americans for skilled technical jobs This report provides action oriented recommendations for improving the American system of technical education training and certification

The Divide Within Tina L. Heafner,Laura K. Handler,Tracy C. Rock,2021-01-01 Globalization modernization and technologization have brought rapid social and economic change while also increasing diversity of democratic societies Plurality of democracy once viewed as a progressive ideology has been met by the movement of identity politics to the margins of society Although social movements demanding recognition on the part of groups that were once invisible to mainstream society have brought attention to systemic inequities prejudice and discriminatory policies other groups feeling a loss of status and a sense of displacement have pushed back with counterclaims and protests These conflicting narratives have fractured society and segmented the populace along narrowly defined identities creating a new era of democracy and isolationism Today in the United States we see the troubling effects of increasingly polarized political discourse amplified gridlock within government the politicization and fragmentation of economic and social life and the suppression of the spread of information across ideological lines The socio political climate in America is characterized by skepticism hostility distrust claims of fake news and unwavering opposition The divide within our nation has shifted the narrative of democracy from promoting the common good to protecting the interests of likeminded factions and the preservation of power and privilege In recent decades researchers focused attention on studying the social geographic political and technological polarization in the United States Trends manifest in myriad ways both in politics and in everyday life and expose the divergence between urban and rural communities These inquiries also suggest that causes and effects of identity politics and polarization are too complex to be studied within the confines of a single discipline Its exploration therefore requires participation and collaboration from scholars in many different fields particularly those working in the social sciences In this edited volume we seek to leverage this research capacity to engage the reader in studies and instruction concerning the divide within and the intersections of realities facts theories and practices in social science education Download a sample article Teaching to a Statue Wade H Morris Georgia State University Chara Haessler Bohan Georgia State University

Cinematic Social Studies William B. Russell,Stewart Waters,2017-01-01 Action Film is a common and powerful element in the social studies classroom and Cinematic Social Studies explores teaching and learning social studies with film Teaching with film is a prominent teaching strategy utilized by many teachers on a regular basis Cinematic Social Studies moves readers beyond the traditional perceptions of teaching film and explores the vast array of ideas and strategies related to teaching social studies with film The contributing authors of this volume seek to explain through an array of ideas and visions what cinematic social studies can and should look like while providing research and rationales for why teaching social studies with film is valuable and important This volume includes twenty four scholarly chapters discussing relevant topics of importance to cinematic social studies The twenty four chapters are divided into three sections This stellar collection of writings includes contributions from noteworthy scholars like Keith Barton Wayne Journell James Damico Cynthia Tyson and many more Evolution Education Around the Globe Hasan Deniz, Lisa A.

Borgerding, 2018-06-21 This edited book provides a global view on evolution education It describes the state of evolution education in different countries that are representative of geographical regions around the globe such as Eastern Europe Western Europe North Africa South Africa North America South America Middle East Far East South East Asia Australia and New Zealand Studies in evolution education literature can be divided into three main categories a understanding the interrelationships among cognitive affective epistemological and religious factors that are related to peoples views about evolution b designing implementing evaluating evolution education curriculum that reflects contemporary evolution understanding and c reducing antievolutionary attitudes This volume systematically summarizes the evolution education literature across these three categories for each country or geographical region The individual chapters thus include common elements that facilitate a cross cultural meta analysis Written for a primarily academic audience this book provides a much needed common background for future evolution education research across the globe The Education of

Minorities in Africa, the Caribbean, and the Middle East Cynthia Szymanski Sunal, Oluseyi Matthew Odebiyi, Kagendo Mutua, 2025-05-30 This book explores efforts to adapt curricula for minority students in Africa the Caribbean and the Middle East It covers education from early childhood to university addressing ethnicity class gender and ability disability

Researchers document challenges and critical issues in providing relevant public education to minorities Handbook of Research on Revisioning and Reconstructing Higher Education After Global Crises Hai-Jew, Shalin, 2023-01-20 Global challenges in a chaotic context are ever in play emerging and receding in time At the present moment the global challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic have resulted in several years of mass scale challenges and lost learning and socialization from K 12 to higher education for many The pandemic has been a high consequence and continuing event Universities and colleges have been under unprecedented budgetary strain Despite all the immense and irreparable human losses humanity is moving forward with lessons from the past several years The Handbook of Research on Revisioning and Reconstructing Higher Education After Global Crises explores how global higher education will recover from the global pandemic at the micro meso and macro levels and how they will re establish their relevance for teaching and learning research and innovation and social contributions Covering topics such as campus life online library services and Indigenous students this major reference work is an essential resource for educators and administrators of higher education government officials students of higher education librarians researchers and academicians The Knowledge Gap Natalie Wexler, 2020-08-04 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America s education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country s frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn t one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum s intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge In the tradition of Dale Russakoff s The Prize and Dana Goldstein s The Teacher Wars Wexler brings together history research and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system one that fellow reformers journalists and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public including many parents remains unaware But The Knowledge Gap isn t just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention

Excellence Gaps in Education Jonathan A. Plucker, Scott J. Peters, 2020-01-15 2017 Texas Association for Gifted and Talented Legacy Scholar Book Award 2017 National Association of Gifted Children Scholar Book of the Year Award In Excellence Gaps in Education Jonathan A Plucker and Scott J Peters shine a spotlight on excellence gaps the achievement gaps among subgroups of students performing at the highest levels of achievement Much of the focus of recent education reform has been on closing gaps in achievement between students from different racial ethnic or socioeconomic backgrounds by bringing all students up to minimum levels of proficiency Yet issues related to excellence gaps have been largely absent from discussions about how to improve our schools and communities Plucker and Peters argue that these significant gaps reflect the existence of a persistent talent underclass in the United States among African American Hispanic Native American and poor students resulting in an incalculable loss of potential among our fastest growing populations Drawing on the latest research and a wide range of national and international data the authors outline the scope of the problem and make the case that excellence gaps should be targeted for elimination They identify promising interventions for talent development already underway in schools and provide a detailed review of potential strategies including universal screening flexible grouping targeted programs and psychosocial interventions Excellence Gaps in Education has the potential for changing our national conversation about equity and excellence and bringing fresh attention to the needs of high potential students from underrepresented backgrounds

Multiple Alterities Elie Podeh, Samira Alayan, 2017-12-18 This book highlights and examines the role of the textbook in legitimising established political and social orders It analyses the way in which the other is presented in school textbooks focusing on a number of countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region and argues that the role of textbooks in developing and maintaining a national identity should be afforded greater critical attention Textbooks can help form national identities by developing a society's collective memory this might involve a historical narrative which may be self contradictory or even fabricated to a certain extent including myths symbols and collective memories that divide us from them and ultimately resulting a dichotomy between the Self and the Other As well as addressing a range of theoretical questions relating to the study of textbooks generally the volume also covers a broad spectrum of Middle Eastern states and societies with contributions from Turkey Iran Egypt Cyprus Lebanon Iraq Kurdistan Jordan Morocco Tunisia Israel and Palestine It will be essential reading for researchers and students working in the fields of Education Sociology and History particularly those with an interest in national identities in the MENA region

Understanding Young People's Science Aspirations Louise Archer, Jennifer DeWitt, 2016-08-12 Understanding Young People's Science Aspirations offers new evidence and understanding about how young people develop their aspirations for education learning and ultimately careers in science Integrating new findings from a major research study with a wide ranging review of existing international literature it brings a distinctive sociological analytic lens to the field of science education The book offers an explanation of how some young people do become dedicated to follow science and what might be done to increase and broaden this population exploring the need for increased scientific literacy among citizens to enable them to exercise agency and lead a life underpinned by informed decisions about their own health and their environment Key issues considered include why we should study young people's science aspirations the role of families social class and science capital in career choice the links between ethnicity gender and science aspirations the implications for research policy and practice Set in the context of widespread international policy concern about the urgent need to improve increase and diversify participation in post 16 science this key text considers how we must encourage a supply of appropriately qualified future scientists and workers in STEM industries and ensure a high level of scientific literacy in society It is a crucial read for all training and practicing science teachers education researchers and academics as well as anyone invested in the desire to help fulfil young people's science aspirations

Researching Religious Education: Classroom Processes and Outcomes Friedrich Schweitzer, Reinhold Boschi, 2017 The question of how research on structures and outcomes in Religious Education can be carried out successfully is of current interest in many countries Next to the more traditional historical analytical and more recently international comparative approaches empirical research in religious education has been able to establish itself as a major approach to this field Moreover the contemporary discussion about comparative evaluation in schools has raised a number of questions which also refer to Religious Education What competences can pupils acquire in this subject Does Religious Education really support the acquisition and development of the competences aspired Are there differences in this respect between different forms of Religious Education or between different approaches to teaching With contributions from eight European countries the volume brings together approaches and research experiences that try to follow this lead by offering new and empirically based perspectives for the future improvement of teaching and learning in this school subject Whoever is interested in improving the practice of Religious Education then will not be able to bypass the question of researching processes and outcomes an insight which also refers to a small but growing number of studies in this field which can be identified in several countries
