Western Corporations and Covert Operations in the early Cold War Margaret Murányi Manchester,2024-05-28

This book examines the Vogeler Sanders espionage case that ruptured ties between the US and UK and Hungary in 1949 and analyses this as an example of Western covert operations in the early Cold War The work focuses on the 1949 case of ITT in Hungary where two of its executives the American Robert A Vogeler and the Briton Edgar Sanders were arrested by the secret police tortured forced to confess put on a public show trial and found guilty of espionage This happened at a time that the US and the UK were cooperating in numerous operations to undermine the credibility of the communist regime and to encourage local resistance by all means short of war Using the case as a lens to examine the dynamics of the early Cold War the book integrates business history diplomatic history and intelligence history and thereby traces the impact of the case on Anglo Hungarian American Hungarian and Anglo American relations during the critical period of 1949 1956 Vogeler s case had a strong impact on the growing criticism of the Truman Administration s containment policies and contributed to the demand for a more activist policy of liberation of captive peoples His experiences also rallied the business community especially trade associations such as the National Foreign Trade Council the US Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers to support the anti communist crusade both abroad and at home Vogeler s wife also waged a personal campaign to secure her husband s release and exemplifies the activism of conservative and Catholic women who waged their own anti communist crusade The book thus tells the rest of the story often omitted in traditional works This book will be of much interest to students of Cold War history intelligence studies and European political history RBI Grade B
