Topics in European History ca1000-1914

Mr Mercante

Goals: This course will focus on the interactions between different countries and peoples from Europe and surrounding regions such as North Africa and Southwest Asia beginning with Medieval period in Europe (ca 1000) and concluding just prior to the outbreak of WWI (1914). Particular emphasis will be placed on the events and ideas that have shaped and continue to shape world history up to this very day, including: feudalism, the origins of Islam, the Renaissance, the Enlightenment, the French Revolution, the Industrial Revolution, the emergence of ideas such as capitalism, liberalism, nationalism, socialism, and communism, and European contact (for better and worse) with the rest of the world through colonialism and imperialism. By studying these events and ideas students will come to see how the people, events, and ideas of far away places and past years have shaped and continue to shape the lives they lead today.

Content: Each unit will focus around several main points or essential questions. In addition for each section students will be asked to question, why this episode in history is important. What does each particular section of history tell us about the world that we live in today or about ourselves?

Grade 9 Final Exam Paper Of History 2014:

Narrating the Soviet Era in Russian School History Textbooks Olga Konkka, 2025-09-03 This study focuses on how Russian history textbooks published between 1992 and 2021 dealt with the topic of the Soviet period 1917-1991. Representations of this part of Russia's past in school manuals have provoked vivid debates and bolstered government intervention in the field while a gradual shift towards a less critical narrative of the USSR in more recent textbooks is often presented as directed by Vladimir Putin. This study combines research into these texts and inquiry into those who write, publish, approve or criticize them. Bringing together these perspectives provides a more complex view of school textbooks as final products of both top-down and bottom-up processes. This volume is aimed at postgraduate researchers and academics specializing in Soviet history, contemporary Russian politics and society and history education and textbooks. Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences 2014 (Grad 2) Peterson's, 2013-11-22 Peterson's Graduate Programs in the Humanities Arts Social Sciences 2014 contains comprehensive profiles of more than 11,000 graduate programs in disciplines such as applied arts, design, area cultural studies, art, art history, conflict resolution, mediation, peace studies, criminology, forensics, language, literature, psychology, counseling, religious studies, sociology, anthropology, archaeology and more. Up-to-date data collected through Peterson's Annual Survey of Graduate and Professional Institutions provides valuable information on degree offerings, professional accreditation, jointly offered degrees, part-time and evening/weekend programs, postbaccalaureate distance degrees, faculty, students, requirements, expenses, financial support, faculty research and unit head and application contact information. There are helpful links to in-depth descriptions about a specific graduate program or department, faculty members and their research and more. There are also valuable articles on financial assistance, the graduate admissions process, advice for international and minority students and facts about accreditation with a current list of accrediting agencies. The Schenley Experiment Jake Oresick, 2017-04-14 The Schenley Experiment is the story of Pittsburgh's first public high school, a social incubator in a largely segregated city that was highly even improbably successful throughout its 156-year existence. Established in 1855 as Central High School and reorganized in 1916 as Schenley High School, it was a model of innovative public education and an ongoing experiment in diversity. Its graduates include Andy Warhol, actor Bill Nunn and jazz virtuoso Earl Hines, and its prestigious academic program and pensions lured such teachers as future Pulitzer Prize winner Willa Cather. The subject of investment as well as destructive neglect, the school reflects the history of the city of Pittsburgh and provides a study in both the best and worst of urban public education practices there and across the Rust Belt. Integrated decades before Brown v. Board of Education, Schenley succumbed to de facto segregation during the white flight of the 1970s; it rose again to prominence in the late 1980s when parents camped out in six-day-long lines to enroll their children in visionary superintendent Richard C. Wallace's reinvigorated school. Although the historic triangular building was a cornerstone of its North Oakland neighborhood and a showpiece for the city of Pittsburgh, officials closed the school in 2008 citing over 50 million in necessary renovations a controversial event that captured national attention Schenley alumnus Jake Oresick tells this story through interviews historical documents and hundreds of first person accounts drawn from a community indelibly tied to the school A memorable important work of local and educational history his book is a case study of desegregation magnet education and the changing nature and legacies of America s oldest public schools
