Handbook of Research on Didactic Strategies and Technologies for Education: Incorporating Advancements
Pumilia-Gnarini, Paolo M.,2012-09-30 This book is designed to be a platform for the most significant educational achievements by teachers school administrators and local associations that have worked together in public institutions that range from primary school to the university level Provided by publisher

Psychological Assessment in South Africa
Sumaya Laher,Kate Cockcroft,2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners

Educational Innovations Beyond Technology Nancy Law,Allan Yuen,Robert Fox,2011-01-15 The text explores the concept of innovation and analyse and compare different dimensions of innovation found in the various case studies the transfer of innovation and the mechanisms of change on an innovative online case study database on education innovations that has been designed to be used by education practitioners to support organizational leadership international collaboration and reflective practice in the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC eEducation Leadership initiative on a project aimed to support the establishment of communities of practice for education practitioners facilitated through an extendable online database that can be used to contribute and share case studies of their own ICT supported pedagogical innovations It discusses roles of the teacher and the anticipated changes to the education profession at a system level in the coming decade on the basis of emerging changes observed in the case studies and leadership issues at the school level The book analyses change mechanisms for different kinds of innovation and how different contextual and cultural factors interact to bring about the changes observed

Financial School Management Explained, 2nd edition T C Bisschoff, Raj Mestry, Bisshoff,2009

Citizenship, Education and Violence Waghid Yusef,2013-12-30 The focus of this book is to offer a humane rocesponse to dealing with violence An interpretive analysis is presented in order to think differently about violence in schools and about how a citizenship education of becoming can deal with the unpredictable consequences of violence in its own potentiality It seems to the authors that given the confident onslaught of violence there is nothing left to do but to offer insight into the nature of violence itself and by so doing to search for unexplored ways of humane response and being The authors are not pretending to hold a magic wand that will sanctify schools into the safe zones that they ought to be and as which they should serve in any society This would be both presumptuous and misleading What one is looking and hoping for however is a renewed engagement a slight tilting of the perspective so that something other than how we have always responded to violence perhaps will emerge The authors are confident that such a deconstructive approach to violence in schools through the lens of a reconsidered view of citizenship education can assist them and others to wrestle with its potential for destruction that can be changed into options for co belonging of a non violent if not peaceful kind

Youth in a Changing Karelia Vesa Puuronen, Pentti Sinisalo, Larissa Shvets, 2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2000 The book is aimed at uncovering certain features of the future of Karelia which is partly situated in Russia and Finland The authors believe that this can be done by studying in depth the opinions values norms beliefs fears and hopes of young people living in two neighbouring but profoundly different societies Russia and Finland Young people are constructing these societies in the 20th century The book is based on a comparative research project financed by the Academy of Finland which was carried out during 1995 1997 by an international interdisciplinary research group The novelty of the book is based on the use of different research methods and theoretical starting points One of the crucial questions raised by the book concerns the applicability of Western theories in research into Russian society and people The analysis shows that many of the concepts applied frequently in Western social sciences do not apply in research relating to Russian specific culture The book proposes that more attention should be paid to the challenges of comparative research

United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor, 1967 Engaging Students in Academic Literacies
María Estela Brisk, 2014-07-25 The Common Core State Standards require schools to include writing in a variety of genres across the disciplines. Engaging Students in Academic Literacies provides specific information to plan and carry out genre based writing instruction in English for K-5 students within various content areas. Informed by systemic functional linguistics a theory of language IN USE in particular ways for particular audiences and social purposes it guides teachers in developing students ability to construct texts using structural and linguistic features of the written language. This approach to teaching writing and academic language is effective in addressing the persistent achievement gap between ELLs and mainstream students especially in the context of current reforms in the U.S. Transforming systemic functional linguistics and genre theory into concrete classroom tools for designing implementing and reflecting on instruction and providing essential scaffolding for teachers to build their own knowledge of its essential elements applied to teaching the text includes strategies for apprenticing students to writing in all genres features of elementary students writing and examples of practice.
