Romance of a Harem, 1904      Uncertain Territories Inge E. Boer, 2006-01-01 Tracing and theorizing the concept of the boundaries through literary works visual objects and cultural phenomena this book argues against the reification of boundaries as fixed and empty non spaces that simply divide the world Expanding on her previous work on gender and Orientalism Inge Boer takes us into uncertain territories of fashion and art tourism and travel skilfully engaging the ambivalence of boundaries as both protecting and confining as bringing distinction while existing by virtue of their ability to be transgressed In her close readings of that boundaries as desert as frame as home or lack of it Boer shows that boundaries are spaces within through and in the name of which negotiations take place They are not lines but spaces neither fixed nor empty but flexible and inhabited With the publication of this book Boer s intellectual legacy stretches beyond her untimely passing The writings that she left behind can be said to have inaugurated the future of her work presented in the latter part by several of Boer s intellectual companions In their original essays the contributors elaborate on Boer s theme of boundaries as spaces where opposition yields to negotiation Committed to the artefact as cultural stimulant as the embodiment of thought their analyses span a multitude of artefacts and media ranging from literature to photography to art installation and presentation to film and song Fanning out from Boer s central focus Orientalism to other places of contestation boundaries are shown to mediate the relationship between self and other they are ultimately spaces of encounter      Secular and Islamic Feminist Critiques in the Work of Fatima Mernissi Raja Rhouni, 2010 This book presents a detailed critical analysis of the work of Fatima Mernissi Mernissi is considered to be one of the major figures in Feminist thought for both Morocco and Muslim society in general This work discusses Mernissi s intellectual trajectory from secular to Islamic feminism in order to trace the evolution of so called Islamic feminist theory The book also engages critically with the work of other Muslim feminists using frameworks and approaches developed in the works of Muslim reformist thinkers namely Mohammed Arkoun and Nasr Abu Zaid with the aim of engaging the theorization of this emerging Feminism      Harems of the Mind Ruth Bernard Yeazell, 2000-01-01 In a nuanced reading of Ingres s Bain turc and other works Yeazell concludes that for some the appeal of the harem lay in the fantasy of eluding time and death BOOK JACKET      Harem Histories Marilyn Booth, 2010 An interdisciplinary collection of essays exploring the harem as it was imagined represented and experienced in Middle Eastern and North African societies and by visitors to those societies      Women Composers' Creative Conditions Before and During the Turkish Republic Nejla Melike Atalay, 2021-10-14 This research is focused on three Istanbulite composers Leyla Han mefendi Nazife Aral G ran and Y ksel Koptagel who lived and produced in consecutive and overlapping periods from the Tanzimat Era of the Ottoman Empire to the Turkish Republic of the 1980s It explores the composers productive and creative conditions through the socio political environments of their times their familial and educational backgrounds and the social spaces in which they lived and worked The institutionalisation of Western music and the education thereof occupy a significant place in understanding the composers relationships with Western music the bonds they established with polyphonic music and the development of their musical personalities as a consequence of their education resultant from the opportunities provided by such developments This study conjointly examines herstory and music historiography by employing alternative materials and creating its own narrative Indian Sex Life Durba Mitra,2020-01-07 During the colonial period Indian intellectuals philologists lawyers scientists and literary figures all sought to hold a mirror to their country Whether they wrote novels polemics or scientific treatises all sought a better understanding of society in general and their society in particular Curiously female sexuality and sexual behavior play an outside role in their writing The figure of the prostitute is ubiquitous in everything from medical texts and treatises on racial evolution to anti Muslim polemic and studies of ancient India In this book Durba Mitra argues that between the 1840s and the 1940s the new science of sexuality became foundational to the scientific study of Indian social progress The colonial state and an emerging set of Bengali male intellectuals extended the regulation of sexuality to far reaching projects that sought to define what society should look like and how modern citizens should behave An exploration of this history of social scientific thought offers new perspectives to understand the power of paternalistic and deeply violent claims about sexual norms in the postcolonial world today These histories reveal the enduring authority of scientific claims to a tradition that equates social good with the control of women s free will and desire Thus they managed to dramatically reorganize their society around upper caste Hindu ideals of strict monogamy Tell This in My Memory Eve M. Troutt Powell,2012-11-14 In the late nineteenth century an active slave trade sustained social and economic networks across the Ottoman Empire and throughout Egypt Sudan the Caucasus and Western Europe Unlike the Atlantic trade slavery in this region crossed and mixed racial and ethnic lines Fair skinned Circassian men and women were as vulnerable to enslavement in the Nile Valley as were teenagers from Sudan or Ethiopia Tell This in My Memory opens up a new window in the study of slavery in the modern Middle East taking up personal narratives of slaves and slave owners to shed light on the anxieties and intimacies of personal experience The framework of racial identity constructed through these stories proves instrumental in explaining how countries later confronted or not the legacy of the slave trade Today these vocabularies of slavery live on for contemporary refugees whose forced migrations often replicate the journeys and stigmas faced by slaves in the nineteenth century Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh,Layla Maleh,2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayezy Suyoufie

Humanism in Islam Marcel Boisard, 1987-10-01 Humanism in Islam The West s generalized fear and lack of intellectual honesty toward Islam prevent it from recognizing the wealth of benefits Islam bestows on mankind Demonstrates that Islam and Islamic law can make a vital contribution to the protection of human rights worldwide Freed from European colonial tutelage and representing almost a billion souls grouped in approximately forty states the Muslims have entered the international scene without really having any other choice but to imitate the existing institutions or to accept provisions in which they historically speaking have had no participation Nevertheless the process of modernization has not lured the Muslims away from the remembrance of a glorious heritage On the contrary wherever the movement of Westernization has been too brutal it has run into a religious challenge Islam thus reappeared as one of the grand moral and political forces of the contemporary world Humanism in Islam has not been drafted only out of sympathy for the Muslims but also on account of historical evidence Islamic civilization was the first to outline clear and mandatory provisions for protecting the destiny of man and society and for creating order in the ties between peoples As to its general character this work attempts to encourage a certain Western public to abandon its ethnocentrism in order to better understand the legitimate aspirations expressing themselves sometimes in chaos of the present day Muslims

Western Music Nasser Al-Taee,2017-07-05 This book focuses on the cultural political and religious representations of the Orient in Western music Dr Nasser Al Taee traces several threads in a vast repertoire of musical representations concentrating primarily on the images of violence and sensuality Al Taee argues that these prevailing traits are not only the residual manifestation of the Ottoman threat to Western Europe but also the continuation of a long and complex history of fear and fascination towards the Orient and its Islamic religion In addition to analyses of musical works Al Taee draws on travel accounts paintings biographies and political events to engage with important issues such as gender race and religious differences that may have contributed to the variously complex images of the Orient in Western music The study extends the range of Orientalism to cover eighteenth century Austria nineteenth century Russia and twentieth century America The book challenges those scholars who do not see Orientalism as problematic and tend to ignore the role of musical representations in shaping the image of the Other within a wider interdisciplinary study of knowledge and power      A Cultural History of Race in the Age of Empire and Nation State Marina B. Mogilner,2023-06-01 This volume covers the cultural history of race in the long 19th century the age of empire and nation state a transformative period during which a modern world had been forged and complex and hierarchical imperial formations were challenged by the emerging national norm The concept of race emerged as a dominant epistemology in the context of the conflicting entanglement of empire and nation as two alternative but quite compatible forms of social imaginary It penetrated all spheres of life under the novel conditions of the emerging mass culture and mass society and with the sanction of anthropocentric and positivistic science Allegedly primeval and parasocial race was seen as a uniquely stable constant in a society in flux amid transforming institutions economies and political regimes But contrary to this perception there was nothing stable or natural about race The spread of racializing social and political imagination only reinforced the need for constant renegotiation and readjustment of racial boundaries Therefore avoiding any structuralist simplifications this volume looks at specific imperial nationalizing and hybrid contexts framing the semantics and politics of race in the course of the long 19th century In different parts of the globalizing world various actors were applying their own notions of race to others and to themselves embracing it simultaneously as a language of othering and personal subjectivity Consequently the cultural history of race as told in this volume unfolds on many levels in multiple loci and in different genres thus reflecting the qualities of race as an omnipresent and all embracing discourse of the time      Women in the Middle East Haleh Afshar,2016-01-21 This book offers both theoretical perspectives and detailed examples which provide the analytical frameworks chosen by the Middle Eastern women themselves to explain the strategies they have chosen for liberation The studies deal with Islam and its impact on personal and public lives of women in the region as well as their political struggles for liberation both internally and internationally The Aldine Magazine of Biography, Bibliography, Criticism, and the Arts ,1839
