Shipmates Chris Terrill, 2012-07-31 This is the tie in book to a two part BBC 1 documentary series to be screened at 9 00pm in October and which will end on the bicentenary of the Battle of Trafalgar on 21st October Chris Terrill is famous for his fly on the wall documentaries which have been watched by millions and received wide critical acclaim We have had HMS Brilliant and The Cruise audience reached 11 million Chris has based himself for the last few months in the very heart of the modern day naval experience We will see a Royal Naval Chaplain exorcising a haunted barracks in Portsmouth a vodka fuelled Trafalgar Day celebration in the British Embassy in the Moscow in 2004 a Polaris submarine crossing the Atlantic on an exercise in which it will pretend to nuke America the patrol of the frigate HMS Chatham in the Gulf suddenly diverted to Sri Lanka after the Tsunami and the Fleet Review where HMS Chatham in honour of her humanitarian role in Asia will lead the entire assembly of a hundred warships British and foreign down the Solent Chris is the only film maker to be granted exclusive behind the scenes access by the Navy this year During the filming Chris will capture the heart and soul of the sailors aboard and on shore there will be plenty of irreverence practical jokes and laughs and the human reality of the families left behind for months on end as warships and submarines go on extended tours of duty This will be the fullest ever account of the Modern Navy in a year when the Trafalgar Day celebrations and the Fleet review will attract an avalanche of publicity Language and Mediated Masculinities Robert Lawson, 2023 From television shows to the manosphere and from alt right communities to fatherhood forums debates about masculinity have come to dominate the media landscape What does it mean to be a man in contemporary society How is masculinity constituted in different media spaces This growing cultural tension around masculinities has been discussed and analyzed both for general audiences and in burgeoning academic scholarship What has been typically overlooked however is the role that language plays in these mediated performances of masculinity In Language and Mediated Masculinities Robert Lawson draws on data from newspapers social media sites television programs and online forums to explore language and masculinities across a range of media contexts The book offers a critical evaluation of the intersection between language masculinities and identities in contemporary society and addresses three key questions How are masculinities constructed in both public and private spheres through linguistic and discursive strategies How does language about masculinity and men affect and recreate gender ideologies in different social political and historical contexts What might the language of men tell us about the state of contemporary gender relations in the twenty first century Lawson furthers our understanding of how language is implicated in re creating gender ideologies and how it shapes contemporary gender relations Against a cultural backdrop of rising neoliberalism ethnic nationalism online radicalization networked misogyny and fractious gender relations this book is an important contribution to charting how language is used to monitor evaluate and police masculinities in online and offline spaces
