Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-14 From Picasso's Cubism and Duchamp's readymades to Warhol's silkscreens and Smithson's earthworks the art of the twentieth century broke completely with earlier artistic traditions A basic change in the market for advanced art produced a heightened demand for innovation and young conceptual innovators from Picasso and Duchamp to Rauschenberg and Warhol to Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst responded not only by creating dozens of new forms of art but also by behaving in ways that would have been incomprehensible to their predecessors Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth Century Art presents the first systematic analysis of the reasons for this discontinuity David W Galenson whose earlier research has changed our understanding of creativity combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a fundamentally new interpretation of modern art that will give readers a far deeper appreciation of the art of the past century and of today than is available elsewhere

The Equilibrium of Parliamentary Law-making Viktor Kazai, 2024-08-01 This book is a response to the dangers posed to constitutional democracy by the continuous growth of executive power and the simultaneous decline of parliament's role in policy formation These phenomena are often manifested in the manipulation and even the violation of the rules of parliamentary law making called irregularities If left without consequences these irregularities can ultimately lead to the elimination of the procedural constraints imposed on the ruling political forces to prevent their arbitrary exercise of power This work investigates the constitutional significance of the irregularities of parliamentary law making and explores the role that courts play in the remedy of these flaws The analysis is premised on the concept of equilibrium This explanatory concept denotes an ideal state in which parliamentary law making complies with the requirements of constitutionalism and judicial review is conceptualized as a mechanism suitable to achieve this aim The volume places the judicial review of the regulation and the practice of parliamentary law making at its center and discusses all the relevant legal concepts institutions and doctrines It combines theoretical analysis with case law centered comparative research covering a large number of decisions delivered by apex courts operating in various jurisdictions Due to this methodological choice the book aims to simultaneously contribute to the scholarly discourse and provide useful information to practicing lawyers and policymakers working in the areas of constitutional law and politics and comparative law
